JOHN H. McKAY
Director of Athletics
Head Football Coach

USC's John McKay is a very direct man. His goal every season, he says, is always the same: to go to the Rose Bowl.

Lately, however, he has also been zeroing in on the national championship.

In 1974, McKay won his fourth national title and second in three years at USC, when his Trojans rallied to beat Ohio State, 18-17, in the Rose Bowl. When the noise had quieted in Pasadena, USC accepted national championship trophies from UPI, the Football Writers Association and the National Football Foundation, which presented the prestigious MacArthur Bowl.

In so doing, McKay became only the third college coach in the history of wire service polls to finish No. 1 four times. The others were Frank Leahy of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama.

The Rose Bowl has also become a habit for the 52-year-old coach and athletic director. The 1974 team was the eighth McKay has guided to Pasadena — a record — and it gave USC seven trips to the Rose Bowl in the last nine years.

In the 61-year history of the oldest bowl game, only one coach — McKay — has taken a team there four successive times. The Trojans played in the 1967, 1968, 1969 and 1970 versions of the classic and could make it four in a row again on the first day of 1976. They're coming off appearances the last three years.

"The Rose Bowl is the most prestigious bowl game around," says McKay. "It's always a thrill for me to coach there, and it's a great reward for the players."

McKay's Trojans won the national championship in 1962, 1967, 1972 and 1974, have finished in the top ten of the polls 10 times, won nine Pacific-8 championships and gone undefeated three times.

The 1962 team was 11-0, the 1969 team was 10-0-1, and the 1972 team was 12-0. All three won Rose Bowl games. McKay is 5-3 in the Rose Bowl.

John McKay's 15-year record at USC is 119-36-8, which places him eighth among all active coaches in total victories. Some Saturday early this season John will pass Howard Jones (121 victories) and become the winningest football coach in Trojan history. McKay's record the last 13 years is an even more dazzling 111-25-7, an 81 per cent winning percentage.

McKay goes into the 1975 season unbeaten in his last 25 Pac-8 games, a new league record. He is 10-4-1 against traditional rival UCLA and 5-1-2 in his last eight games with Notre Dame.

Witty and often outspoken, McKay has also authored a popular book about his philosophy of football and life, a book bulging with anecdotes about his great teams and players. Published in 1974 by Atheneum, it is entitled McKay: A Coach's Story.

The Trojan coach first came to USC in 1959 and spent one season as an assistant on Don Clark's staff before becoming the school's 16th head coach in 1960 upon Clark's retirement.

McKay had 10 years of experience as an assistant, spending nine of them at his alma mater, Oregon. In 1950 he coached offense and defense under his college coach, Jim Aiken, and then spent the next eight years serving under Len Casanova. Again, he coached both offense and defense.

Born in Everettsville, West Virginia, July 5, 1923, McKay was an All-State running back in football and star guard in basketball at Shinnston High in West Virginia. Following graduation from high school and a year spent working in coal mines, he enlisted in the Air Force and served in World War II.

In 1946, McKay entered Purdue, where as a freshman, he started at defensive back. He then transferred to Oregon and was a two-way starter for the Ducks in 1948 and 1949. The 1948 Ducks, led by McKay and Norm Van Brocklin, went 9-1 and were voted into the Cotton Bowl, losing to SMU.

McKay paced that team in scoring with eight touchdowns, and still holds two Oregon records — most rushing touchdowns in a game (3) and highest career average per carry (6.4).

He was drafted by the New York Yankees of the old All-American Conference, but decided instead to pursue a career in coaching. He says his high school coach, Mickey McClung, and junior high coach, Pat Tork, first inspired him to become a coach.

In 1950, McKay married Oregon coed Nancy Hunter of San Bernardino — everybody calls her Corky — and the couple have four children, Michele (Mrs. Tim Donnelly), John, Richard and Terri, (Mrs. Brian Grazer). Johnny was USC's starting split end in 1973 and 1974 and wound up as the third leading receiver in Trojan history with 88 catches for 18 touchdowns.

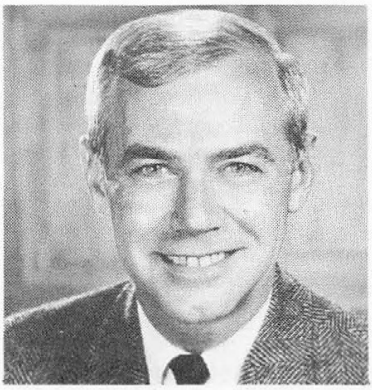
VIRGIL LUBBERDEN
Associate Athletic Director



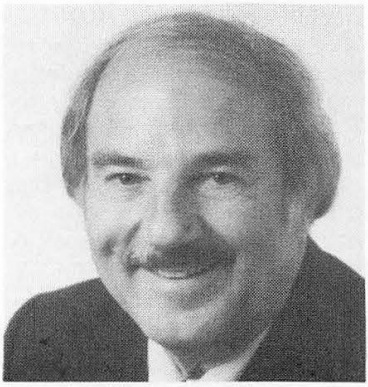
In his 13th year of managing USC's athletic business affairs, Virgil Lubberden received another promotion from Athletic Director John McKay this year. He is now an associate athletic director after serving as an assistant athletic director the past three years.

Lubberden formulates the budget of the athletic department that covers 14 sports. He also arranges all team travel, prepares contracts with opponents in all sports and negotiates rental fees with the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum and Sports Arena for football and basketball. His other responsibilities include the purchase of athletic medical insurance, negotiation for radio and television coverage, supervision of game management for home events and assisting McKay in scheduling football opponents.

After several years of alternating as resident manager of the Rose Bowl game each year with the UCLA business manager, Lubberden was named permanent manager in 1973.

Lubberden is a graduate of USC with a degree in business administration. He was with the Union Oil Company before returning to USC.

NICK PAPPAS
Associate Athletic Director



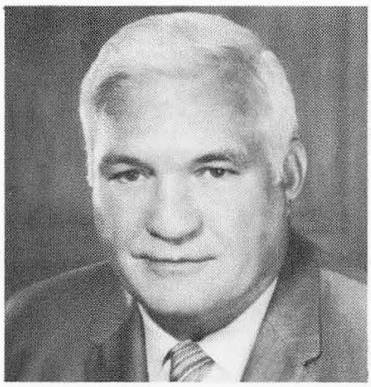
Nick Pappas is the man behind USC's strong, active athletic support groups. He has served at USC for nearly 25 years and built the Trojan athletic support group into the most successful organization of its type in the nation.

Born January 16, 1916, in Seattle, Washington, Pappas attended Broadway High School in Seattle. He was an All-City quarterback and star basketball guard.

He entered USC in 1934 and lettered three years as a tailback for Coach Howard Jones. Following his graduation in 1938, he spent two years in law school and also assisted the Trojan frosh under Julie Bescos in 1936 and Gus Shaver in 1939. He played pro football with the Hollywood Bears in 1938 and 1939.

He scouted for pro clubs for six seasons and for USC two years before becoming a Trojan assistant football coach in 1953. He assumed duties as alumni field secretary in 1957 and became the Director of Trojan Club Affairs and Athletic Fund-Raising in 1959. Two years later, he became Assistant Director of Planning. Since 1962, he has been Director of Athletic Funding consisting of Trojan Club, Cardinal and Gold, Trojaneers, Football Alumni Club, Trojan Coaches Club and Women's Trojan Club.

RAY GEORGE
Assistant Athletic Director

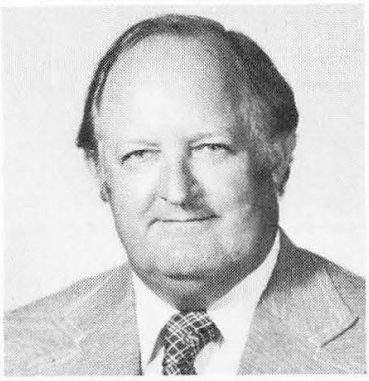


Still ranked as an all-time Trojan line great, Ray George returned to USC in 1971 as assistant athletic director.

He was born on January 17, 1918 in St. Louis, Missouri and attended high school at Loyola in Los Angeles. Ray entered USC as a freshman in 1935. Although never gaining consensus All-American mention, George was never outplayed in three years of varsity football at SC. Following his graduation from SC, Ray then played two years of professional football with the Detroit Lions in 1939 and the Philadelphia Eagles in 1940.

Ray first joined the Trojan coaching staff as line coach in 1946 and served in that capacity through 1950. He moved up to the head coaching job at Texas A and M in 1951 and coached the Aggies for three seasons. He retired from the coaching ranks following the 1953 season and went into private business. Don Clark persuaded the popular assistant coach to rejoin the USC staff in 1958. He served as John McKay's senior assistant for five years.

DAVE LEVY
Assistant Athletic Director
Assistant Coach



Dave Levy, assistant football coach at USC for the past 15 years, was named an assistant athletic director at the university in 1971 by Athletic Director John McKay.

Levy continued with his football duties. He is one of two Trojan assistants who have been with McKay since his first year at USC in 1960. The other is Marv Goux.

The popular Levy came to Troy following a highly successful three-year coaching career at Long Beach Poly High School. In the three years he was at Long Beach, the Jackrabbits compiled a 28-1-1 record, winning the CIF championship in 1958 and 1959.

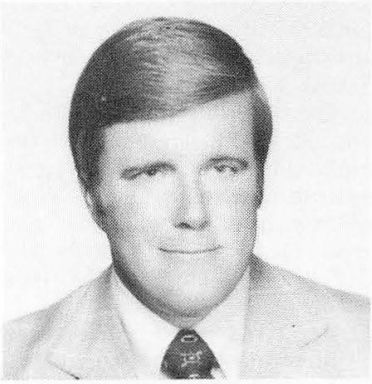
Levy was born October 25, 1932, in Carrollton, Missouri. After moving to Long Beach as a child, he attended Poly High, winning All-City honors as a tackle in football.

Following graduation from high school in 1950, he attended Long Beach City College where he played football for two years. Levy transferred to UCLA, lettering in football in 1952 and 1953.

After graduating from UCLA, Levy spent the 1954 season as an assistant coach with the UCLA Frosh. He moved back to Long Beach City College as an assistant in 1955.

In 1956 the genial coach returned to Long Beach Poly, serving one season as line coach before becoming head coach in 1957.

DR. JAMES DENNIS
Assistant Athletic Director



For Dr. James Dennis, his position as assistant athletic director to John McKay is only one of his many duties at USC.

Dennis, in his third year as an assistant A.D., also is the Director of Campus Life & Recreation, an assistant professor in the physical education department and coordinator of the university's summer sports club.

As assistant athletic director, his duties include directing special events hosted by USC, such as the NCAA Tennis Championships and Pacific-8 Track Championships in 1974 and the Pacific-8 Swimming Championships in 1975. He also helps administer the crew, golf, soccer, volleyball and water polo programs.

He was named Director of Campus Life & Recreation the past year after serving as Director of the University Recreation Association for three years. Over 10,000 students participate in 33 sports in the university's recreation program.

During the past eight summers, he has coordinated the university's summer sports club as part of the National Summer Youth Sports Program. The sports club has provided recreational activities for over 4,000 youngsters in the community surrounding USC during his tenure.

Dr. Dennis received his doctorate degree in athletic administration from USC. While working on that degree, he served as USC assistant swimming coach to Peter Daland for three years, beginning in 1971.

BARBARA HEDGES
Assistant Athletic Director

In 1974, USC expanded its women's inter-collegiate athletic program by naming 37-year-old Barbara Hedges as a full-time assistant to John McKay in charge of women's athletics.

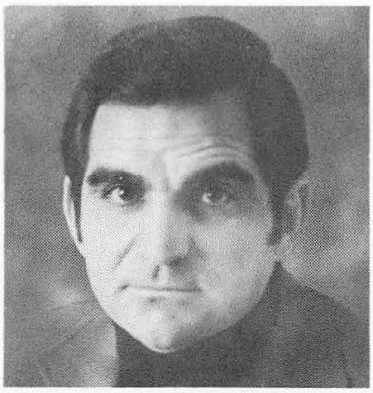
One of the first — if not the first — women assistant athletic directors in the country, Barbara is in charge of six sports — basketball, track and field, volleyball, swimming, gymnastics and tennis.

A graduate of Arizona State in 1963, Barbara earned a master's degree in physical education from the University of Arizona in 1971.

She coached women's gymnastics for nine years, four at West Denver High School in Denver and five at the University of Arizona and also taught physical education at both schools.

Barbara, married and mother of three, came to USC in the fall of 1973 and spent a year coordinating the women's athletic program.

MARV GOUX
Assistant Coach



Marv Goux has been with McKay since his Trojan head coaching start in 1960.

Goux was born September 8, 1932, in Santa Barbara, where he is still known as one of the top prep footballers ever to play in the area. Goux gained both All-CIF and All-America honors while in high school.

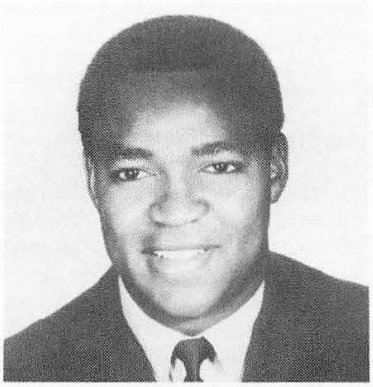
After his graduation from high school, Goux entered Ventura Junior College where he again gained All-America honors at linebacker.

In 1952 Goux transferred to USC, where he earned a starting berth on the varsity. Goux was a standout performer in the 1953 Rose Bowl against Wisconsin. A back injury kept Goux out of action during the 1953 campaign, but he came out for the squad in 1954, taking over at center, a position he had never before played.

He is one of only two USC footballers to twice win the Davis-Teschke Award, given annually to the most inspirational varsity football player. Marv also was picked as co-captain of the 1955 team.

Goux has been an assistant coach at USC since 1957 and was head freshman coach his first three years.

WILLIE BROWN
Assistant Coach



Former Trojan football star Willie Brown joined the USC coaching staff in 1968.

Brown served as assistant coach in both football and baseball, the two sports in which he excelled while at USC, for two seasons before being assigned only football chores.

Brown was born March 21, 1942, in Tuscaloosa, Alabama. He began his football career at Long Beach Poly High. Brown is regarded as one of the greatest football players ever developed in Southern California prep circles. He was named CIF Player-of-the-Year and a prep All-America in 1959, after Poly won the CIF title.

Brown will always be remembered by USC fans for one of the greatest catches in USC football history. Against UCLA in 1962, with the Trojans down 3-0 late in the game, Brown made a sensational catch of a Bill Nelsen pass on the Bruin 2-yard line, setting up a TD that led to the Trojans' 14-3 victory.

Brown was the leading rusher on the 1962 national champion football team, and also was the leading batter (.352) on USC's 1963 baseball squad, which also captured the NCAA title.

After his graduation, Brown went into professional football, playing three years with the Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles.

CRAIG FERTIG
Assistant Coach

A former Trojan football hero, Craig Fertig is back at USC as an assistant coach on John McKay's staff.

Fertig returned to the university in December of 1974 following a year as assistant coach of the Portland Storm of the World Football League. He had previously been a USC assistant coach for 10 years.

Born May 11, 1942, he attended Huntington Park High School. Fertig led his team to the city championship and earned All-City honors as a quarterback in 1959. He then entered USC and was a three-year lettermen under McKay from 1962 to 1964.

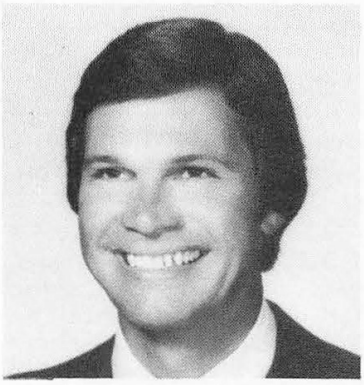
He played a key role in one of USC's greatest football wins, the 20-17 come-from-behind victory over Notre Dame in 1964. Craig threw the winning touchdown pass to Rod Sherman after guiding Troy's second-half comeback effort. The Trojans rallied from a 17-0 halftime deficit.

A co-captain of the 1964 team, Fertig received the Davis-Teschke Award as the most inspirational player.

Fertig set eight USC school records for passing in his career, including most yards passing in a game (371), a mark which still stands.

Following his graduation from USC with a degree in education, he was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers but passed up a pro career to join McKay's staff.

DON LINDSEY
Assistant Coach



After working under both Bear Bryant of Alabama and Frank Broyles of Arkansas, Don Lindsey is in his fifth year with John McKay at USC.

Lindsey was born September 17, 1943 in Camden, Arkansas. He was an All-America as a quarterback for Camden High School and also won district honors in basketball, track and baseball.

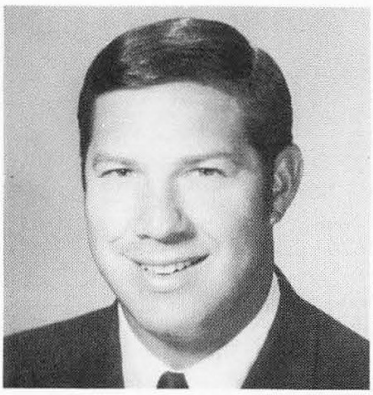
At Arkansas A and M, Lindsey played quarterback and safety, earning honorable mention Little All-America.

Lindsey started coaching in 1965 at Alabama under Bryant. He served as an offensive and defensive backfield coach during his two years there and also received his master's degree from Alabama in 1966. He worked with Crimson Tide quarterback Scott Hunter who broke Joe Namath's passing records at Alabama.

Prior to moving to Arkansas, Lindsey spent one season at Montana State and two at Washington State on Jim Sweeney's staff.

He worked one year for Broyles at Arkansas, coaching the secondary.

SKIP HUSBANDS
Assistant Coach



Skip Husbands, in his fifth year on John McKay's staff, coached some outstanding Trojan players even before coming to USC.

Prior to joining McKay's staff, Husbands served as line coach for three years at Arizona Western College in Yuma (Ariz.) where Charlie Weaver, Willie Hall, Skip Thomas, Charles Hinton and Karl Lorch played before transferring to USC.

Born June 29, 1941 in Ventura, Skip played center and linebacker on the same team at Huntington Park High School as Trojan assistant Craig Fertig. He spent one year at East Los Angeles College before transferring to Utah State. Playing on the same Aggie team as pros Bill Munson and Lionel Aldridge, he lettered three years as a middle linebacker and, in 1963, earned the team's "Hustle Award".

Husbands began his coaching career as a graduate assistant to Tony Knapp at Utah State in 1965 while earning his master's degree. He spent four years as an assistant coach at Las Vegas (Nev.) High School before joining the Arizona Western staff.

In his three years at Utah State the Aggies lost only five games. Las Vegas High was 25-9 and Arizona Western 26-4 during his coaching years.

WAYNE FONTES
Assistant Coach

Former Michigan State star and New York Titans defensive back Wayne Fontes is in his fifth year on the Trojan staff.

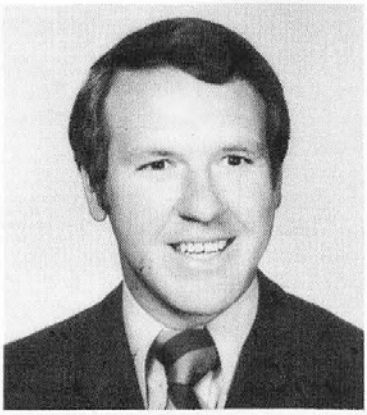
Fontes came to USC from Iowa where he coached for three years under Ray Nagel.

He was born February 17, 1939 in New Bedford, Mass., and attended Canton McKinley High School in Canton, Ohio. In high school Fontes was an All-American halfback and also won All-State honors in baseball and All-City in basketball.

At Michigan State, Fontes was good enough to play in the Senior Bowl and North-South All-Star games. He played one season with the New York Titans of the American Football League before a broken leg forced his early retirement.

Fontes coached the Michigan State frosh in 1963 and earned his master's degree there in 1964. He was head coach at Bay City (Mich.) High School for two seasons with an impressive 18-2 record and spent 1966 and 1967 as a defensive coach at the University of Dayton prior to joining the Iowa staff.

BRUCE SNYDER
Assistant Coach



Bruce Snyder was added to the coaching staff in May of 1974.

He is following in the footsteps of McKay, having also played and coached at Oregon before coming to USC.

Born March 14, 1940, he attended El Monte High School.

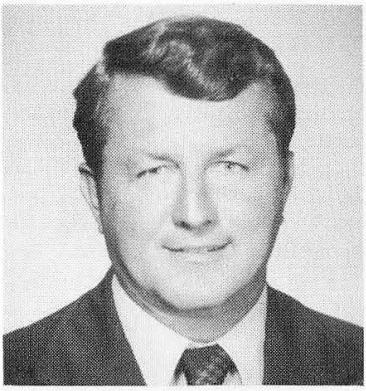
Prior to transferring to Oregon, Snyder was most valuable player his sophomore season at Citrus College, playing fullback. He played two seasons at Oregon as a fullback and linebacker in 1960 and 1962, redshirting in 1961 because of an injury.

Following graduation, Snyder taught and coached at Sheldon High School in Eugene for two years. He returned to Oregon to work on a master's degree and became an assistant coach in 1966.

Snyder coached the offensive backs at Oregon for six years.

He moved to New Mexico State to become the offensive coordinator in 1972. The following season he switched to Utah State as offensive coordinator under Phil Krueger, former USC assistant coach.

DICK BEAM
Assistant Coach



Dick Beam, 38, who brings 16 years of coaching experience with him, is in his second year as a full-time assistant on John McKay's staff.

The transition to full-time assistant was easy for Beam. He spent the 1972 and 1973 seasons as a part-time assistant and scout on the USC staff. During the same years he taught physical education at Alhambra High School.

Born in Long Beach May 16, 1936, Beam was a three-sport letterman — in football, basketball and baseball — at Whittier High School. He was an All-CIF split end in 1954 as a senior.

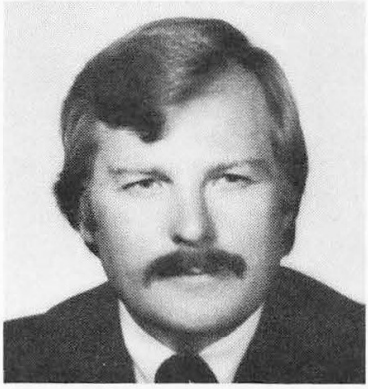
At Whittier College, Beam played football under a pair of future successful pro coaches, George Allen and Don Coryell. He was coached three years by Allen and spent his senior season playing for Coryell.

Graduating in 1958 with a bachelor's degree in physical education, Beam coached the Whittier freshmen that football season, then was an assistant to Coryell in 1959. In 1960 he was assistant coach at Santa Fe High School.

Dick then spent six years as assistant football coach at Montebello High School (1961-66).

In 1967 Beam became head coach at Brea High School, then moved to Alhambra High in 1968, where he was head coach for four years and rebuilt the football program.

FOSTER ANDERSON
Assistant Coach



Foster Anderson, a former head coach at Cal State Los Angeles, became a full-time assistant on John McKay's staff this year.

Anderson was a part-time assistant for McKay in 1974 after serving for three years as the head man at Cal State LA.

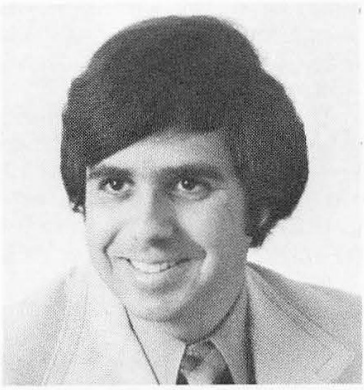
He has been in coaching since 1963 except for four years in the Army from 1964 to 1967. During his service stint, he spent a year in Vietnam as an advisor. He went in as a Lieutenant and came out as a Captain.

Born March 11, 1940 in Los Angeles, Anderson was an All-CIF guard at Alhambra High School where he graduated in 1958.

Anderson lettered three years as a tackle at UCLA under Bill Barnes from 1959 to 1961.

He coached at Pasadena City College for one year after a military stint before becoming defensive coordinator at East Los Angeles College. He was at East Los Angeles two seasons prior to joining the Cal State Los Angeles staff. He served as defensive coordinator at Cal State for one year before moving up to the head coaching position in 1971.

JIM PERRY
Sports Information Director



Jim Perry, who collaborated with USC coach John McKay on his popular autobiography, McKay: A Coach's Story, is in his second year as sports information director.

Perry, 33, came to USC after six years as a sportswriter with the Herald-Examiner, where he covered college football and wrote features on major league baseball, pro basketball, boxing, track and pro football.

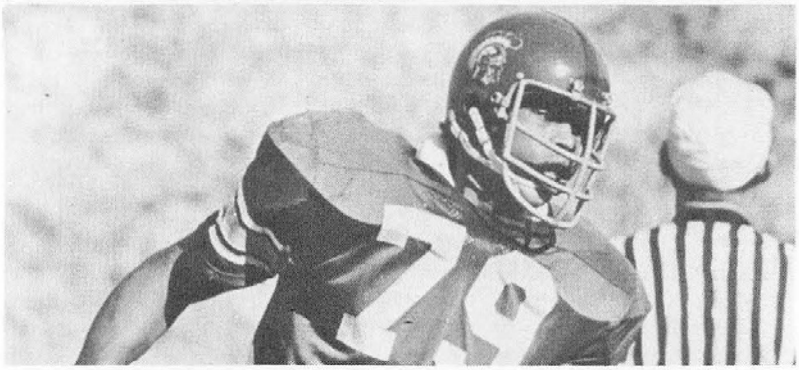
A 1964 graduate of USC, Perry spent one year as a sportswriter with UPI and then 14 months as assistant USC sports information director in 1966 and early 1967. He also worked six months as sports producer at Channel 5 in Los Angeles, putting together nightly sportscasts for Dick Enberg and Keith Jackson.

Perry returned to USC in January of 1974 to assume his present job. He is assisted by Russell Ewald.

JACK WARD—Trainer

Begins his 17th year as head athletic trainer . . . Prior to promotion to the post, he served as assistant USC trainer for one year . . . A University of Nebraska graduate, Jack spent four years as assistant trainer there . . . He is assisted by Paul Williams, Buck Muir and Dave Maurer.

1975 USC PROSPECTUS



ALL-AMERICAN CANDIDATE GARY JETER

1975 is the year of "The Baby Brigade" at USC.

John McKay's Trojans enter the season as defending national champions, riding a 25-game Pac-8 unbeaten streak, and shooting for their fourth straight Rose Bowl.

But they'll have to attack their schedule without 14 starters and 14 pro draft picks from last year's team that finished with five straight dazzling victories, including 55-24 over Notre Dame, and an overall 10-1-1 record. There are only 13 seniors listed among the first 44 players as fall practice begins, 9 of them starters.

"This is the youngest football team we've had in many, many years," says McKay. "There are less pro prospects among the seniors than in any year since 1962. I think there's a lot of real good young talent, but as we all know, young players are prone to make more mistakes than more mature players.

"But it'll be a large, very fast team, and so I would say we'll be pretty good early in the year — and by the end of the season we should be excellent. Truthfully, however, we're a year away from greatness. USC has a chance to be a great team in 1976."

There's been greatness at USC the past three seasons. The Trojans have not lost at home in the Coliseum in 20 games (dating back to 1971), and their record is 31-3-2 the last three years, including the 18-17 victory over Ohio State in the 1975 Rose Bowl that cinched the national championship. But 22 lettermen who helped compile that record are gone, and the names of many read like an all-star team:

All-American tailback Anthony Davis, Heisman Trophy runner-up, greatest rusher in Pac-8 history and greatest kickoff returner in NCAA history; quarterback Pat Haden, who set three school passing records; All-American rover Charles Phillips, who set several NCAA interception marks; linebacker Richard Wood, only three-time All-American in Trojan history; split end Johnny McKay, third leading receiver in USC history; school field goal record holder Chris Limahelu; All-American guard Bill Bain and All-Coast selections Marvin Cobb (safety) and Jim Obradovich (tight end).

"There's no doubt our young players must come through fast," says McKay.

Only four starters return on offense. To begin with, the Trojans will have a new quarterback and tailback.

Letterman junior Vince Evans, who led USC on six touchdown drives last season, and redshirt sophomore Rob Hertel are both excellent runners and good passers at quarterback.

"And we have the best depth we've ever had at tailback," says McKay. "Out of this group I think a star will be born."

The tailbacks are headed by sophomore Dwight Ford, JC All-American Lynn Cain, All-American prep Paul Rice and junior Bernard Tarver — but it may be an ex-fullback, junior Ricky Bell, who first wins the job.

"We have the best three fullbacks as a group in the nation," says McKay of returning senior starter Dave Farmer, Bell and sophomore Mosi Tatupu, "and we're going to start with one of them, Bell, at tailback. He's as fast as (ex-Trojan All-American) Sam Cunningham and bigger." Bell alternated with Farmer at fullback last year.

Besides Farmer, the other returning starter in the backfield is junior flanker Shelton Diggs, who caught the winning two-point conversion in the Rose Bowl.

All-American candidate Marvin Powell, a junior strong tackle, and senior weak guard Joe Davis are returning starters who head an interior line that seems set. It also includes senior Jeff Flood at center, junior Donnie Hickman at strong guard and senior Melvin Jackson at weak tackle. Since Jackson is coming off spring ankle surgery, however, sophomore Otis Page could beat him out.

"I'm worried about split end and tight end," says McKay. "Both jobs are up in the air. No one at those positions has ever played longer than a few minutes."

Junior Lee, a senior letterman, and junior Mike Howell were listed No. 1 at split and tight end, respectively, going into fall drills.

Defensively, the Trojans also return just four starters — All-American tackle candidate Gary Jeter, a junior; last season's leading USC tackler, junior inside linebacker Kevin Bruce; and both cornerbacks, senior Danny Reece and junior Ron Bush. Reece, with 14 interceptions in two years, is a threat to break the all-time Pac-8 career interception mark of 20.

Last year's defense allowed only 11.8 points a game, recovered 20 fumbles and had 29 interceptions, four of them for touchdowns. It will be quite a challenge to match that.

"We may be young on defense, too," says McKay, "but we also have the fastest defense we've ever had. And that's what we've built our whole defensive concept around the last four years — speed."

Ten of the 11 starting Trojan defenders run the 40 in 4.9 or better.

The other starters going into fall drills include sophomore Dennis Thurman or JC transfer Clint Strozier at safety, senior Doug Hogan at rover, senior Dale Logie at inside linebacker, sophomore Mario Celotto and junior David Lewis at outside linebackers, sophomore Vinny Van Dyke at the other tackle, and either senior Tim Rhames or junior Harold Steele at nose guard. Sophomore Clay Matthews also could start — at either inside or outside linebacker.

Can USC beat McKay's prediction and be a great team in 1975?

"Greatness," he says "depends on how fast your material develops and a little bit of luck. But I also think the harder you work, the luckier you get. This team worked awfully hard in the spring, and if they come back this fall in great shape and work that hard again, we could have a heck of a team.

"I will say this: For any other team in the Pac-8 to get to the Rose Bowl, they're going to have to beat the University of Southern California."

USC PLAYER SKETCHES

(Players are listed in alphabetical order by position.)

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACKS

(5) MIKE CAREY — 6-1, 199, 20, So.

A strong, quick runner, Carey sat out the 1974 season after playing with both the varsity and junior varsity as a 1973 freshman. He played rover briefly with the varsity that season, and then moved down to the JV's, where he started at quarterback. He rejoined the varsity at the end of the season on defense and appeared in the Rose Bowl.

He also played both defensive back and quarterback on the North Shrine team in 1973, after being selected All-Northern California quarterback at San Francisco's Riordan High. In one prep game he passed for 140 yards, ran for 120 and scored three touchdowns, while throwing for another.

His most embarrassing moment in sports, says Carey, was being stung by a bee while throwing a pass in practice.

(8) VINCE EVANS — 6-2, 205, 20, Jr.

Listed No. 1 going into fall, Vince Evans may be the greatest running quarterback in USC history. He was a tremendously strong, punishing runner at 220 pounds in 1974, and now at 205, he should be an even quicker one. He took off the 15 pounds before spring practice by eating only one meal a day and impressed John McKay very much, although he played only about 60 per cent of the time before slightly separating his left shoulder. He throws with his right arm.

"He had a great spring before getting hurt," said McKay. "He's so much better than last year that there's no comparison."

Last year wasn't bad. Evans enrolled in the fall as a sophomore from Los Angeles City College and immediately won the backup quarterback job. After appearing in only one play in the Trojans' opener, he took over at halftime of the second game at Pittsburgh with USC trailing, 7-3, and Pat Haden on the bench with a slight concussion. Vince played the entire second half and directed USC's important 16-7 victory. He carried 12 times for 66 yards, directed scoring drives of 80 and 78 yards and scored once on a 13-yard sprint around end.

Used only when victories were clinched the rest of the season, Evans still led the Trojans on other scoring drives of 80 (twice), 63 and 59 yards. He ran 42 times for 201 yards, averaged 4.8 a carry and scored four touchdowns. A good rollout passer, he completed 6 of 16 throws for 113 yards, including a 14-yard scoring strike against Iowa. His longest completion was for 44 yards.

"Evans will definitely run more than Haden," says McKay, "but he's not just a running quarterback. He's a good, solid passer with a quick release, is a strong leader and will be an excellent option quarterback. He has big hands, an advantage on the option — which is a difficult skill to master."

A single wing tailback at Benjamin L. Smith High School in Greensboro, N.C., Evans almost signed with North Carolina Central. Dreaming of attending USC, however ("I was a fan since the days of O.J. Simpson"), he ignored his father's advice and came west to enroll at LACC. In his one season, he was selected MVP in the state JC championship game as his team tied Fresno, 10-10. In eight games at LACC — he missed three with an injury — he passed for 12 touchdowns and ran for 9, completed 92 of 164 passes for 1,270 yards and ran for 358.

Currently, Evans is on the Pac-8 Honor Roll with a 3.08 grade point average in business administration.

(6) ROB HERTEL — 6-2, 185, 20, So.

Had an outstanding spring practice in 1974, but Hertel was held out last fall. He goes into 1975 listed as the No. 2 quarterback, and reminding some observers of former Trojan quarterback great Pete Beathard. In one 1974 spring scrimmage he rolled out to pass and ran 57 yards for a touchdown, dodging four tacklers.

"He's a big, strong kid," says John McKay, "not as fast as Beathard, but perhaps a better drop back passer. He's an excellent runner, too, and could play for most teams in the country. With Evans and Hertel, I don't think our football team will get beat because of the quarterback position."

Rob didn't play last spring, starting instead for Rod Dedeaux's baseball team at third base and batting .284 with 13 doubles and 22 RBI's. He played in 56 of the 57 games and hit .361 in Pac-8 play. In 1974 he hit .500 (8-for-16) as a late season backup for All-American Rich Dauer.

In football, Hertel played with the JV's in 1973 before being elevated to the varsity briefly at the end of the season. Against San Bernardino Valley College he completed 6 of 9 passes for 130 yards and a TD.

Chosen CIF "AAA" Player of the Year in 1973, Hertel led Los Altos to the CIF title. Completed 24 of 36 passes for 366 yards and four touchdowns in one prep game. An avid water skier, Hertel says his favorite team is the Cincinnati Reds.

TAILBACKS

(42) RICKY BELL — 6-2, 215, 20, Jr.

"No one in the nation has three better fullbacks as a group than we do," said John McKay, and with that depth in mind, he moved one of them, Ricky Bell, to tailback, after spring practice. Bell goes into the fall as the No. 1 tailback, after alternating as the No. 1 fullback with Dave Farmer in 1974.

Bell was the third leading rusher for the national champions, bursting for 299 yards, averaging 6.6 a carry and running 59 yards for a touchdown against Washington State, longest USC run of the season. He did not lose a yard.

"He's come along in leaps and bounds since playing linebacker as a freshman," says McKay, "and was just excellent last season and last spring. He's as fast as Sam Cunningham — he runs 4.6 in the 40 — and could be outstanding at tailback or fullback. Against Washington State last year he did the best blocking since Cunningham. But we like a big tailback if we can get one, and playing both Bell and Farmer at the same time gives us more experience."

Last year, Ricky gained 77 yards on 3 carries against Washington State, 58 on 11 against Oregon, 42 on 8 against Stanford and 38 on 6 tries against Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

Bell lettered as an outside linebacker as a freshman, after earning All-Los Angeles City and Southern League Tri-Player of the Year honors as a defensive end and fullback at Fremont High. Gained 995 yards as a senior and lists Jim Brown as his sports idol. He also enjoys playing basketball in the off season.

(21) LYNN CAIN — 6-1, 207, 20, So.

Cain enrolls this fall as a first team Junior College All-American from East Los Angeles JC — and he comes with high praise from John McKay.

"We think Cain will be a super back," says McKay. "No one should consider the tailback position wrapped up, not with him coming in. Mark my word, he's going to play a lot. He's a great prospect."

As a freshman, Cain led East L.A. to a 9-1-2 record and the state championship, a 33-14 Potato Bowl victory over San Jose City College. He ran for 138 yards on 31 carries and scored once in the title game. Cain was also the state large schools rushing champion, breaking away for 1,666 yards and 19 touchdowns in a dozen games. He carried 295 times and averaged 5.6 a carry. Also caught 7 passes, one for a touchdown, and averaged 20.1 yards a catch.

Lynn was 1974 California Player of the Year and also first team All-State. He did not play football in 1973, but was an All-Eastern League defensive back at Roosevelt High in 1972.

(22) DWIGHT FORD — 5-11, 180, 19, So.

Listed as No. 2 tailback going into fall, Ford would appear to have a great future at USC.

"He's lightning quick," says John McKay, "and knows how to run. He just needs to be more aggressive."

The only letterman at tailback (except for ex-fullback Ricky Bell), Ford beat out three other freshmen to back up Anthony Davis and Allen Carter in 1974. He finished as the seventh leading rusher with 168 yards, a 6.5 average per carry and two touchdowns. Against Stanford he scored on a three-yard run, and against Washington he bolted through right tackle and shot down the sideline 36 yards for another score. His best game was 65 yards on 7 carries against Washington State. He was also the second deep man on kickoffs and returned a dozen for a 21.4 average.

A legitimate 9.6 sprinter, Ford was a 1973 High School All-American at Bell and Co-Los Angeles City Player of the Year (with Gardena's Kevin Cole). He broke all of Anthony Davis's city career and season rushing records. As a senior he ran for 1,651 yards on 221 carries for a 7.5 average and scored 19 touchdowns. His three-year career mark is 3,831 yards, including 675 as a sophomore and 1,375 as a junior. He scored 40 touchdowns overall and led Bell into the City finals in 1972.

His favorite pastime away from football, says Ford, "is holding a conversation with a female."

(29) KURT HOLLMER — 6-0, 190, 19, So.

Played briefly with the varsity as a freshman and ran 14 yards against Notre Dame on his only carry. He was also used on kickoff teams.

Kurt was an Honorable Mention High School All-American and also chosen All-Northern California and All-East Bay League for San Ramon High School in Alamo. Ran for 211 yards and five touchdowns in one game to break the 16-year-old East Bay League scoring record. He also long jumped 23-2 for the track team and played basketball.

An outdoorsman, Hollmer loves fishing, skiing and the beach.

(24) PAUL RICE — 5-11, 193, 19, Fr.

A mid-year high school graduate, Rice came to USC in the spring from Lewisville High in Lewisville, Texas, where he was a three-time All-State and, more impressive, two-time All-American (Parade Magazine and Scholastic Coach) selection.

"He's as good a freshman as you'll ever see," says John McKay. "He did everything we asked him to do, remarkable for a youngster just out of high school. He has as much composure as any freshman I've ever seen — he's not awed by anything. He looks very, very quick."

Heavily recruited, Rice says he "fell in love with USC" while watching ex-Trojan Jimmy Jones lead the team at quarterback back in 1969-70-71. At Lewisville, Rice ran for 2,359 yards and 33 touchdowns as a sophomore in 14 games, 1,854 yards and 21 TD's as a junior in 10 games and 1,057 yards and 12 TD's in 10 games as a senior.

His team was 22-2 his first two years, but 5-5 in 1974 when defenses keyed full time on him. Also played safety as a senior, intercepted three passes and caught 11 more on offense. Rushed for 326 yards in one game as a junior and 262 yards in another as a sophomore.

Rice's home town of Lewisville is an agriculturally-oriented town of 20,000, separated from Dallas by the Trinity River.

(31) BERNARD TARVER — 5-10, 185, 20, Jr.

A non-letterman last season, Tarver played both tailback and flanker, netting 45 yards on 6 carries. Quick, slippery and able to take punishment, he was the leading rusher in the final 1974 spring scrimmage with 81 yards on 17 carries. He was a JV in 1973.

The brother of pro football running back John Tarver, Bernard went to Arvin High in Bakersfield, where he also played forward in basketball and triple jumped for the track team. Rushed for 290 yards in one game and gained 1,249 yards as a senior and 1,299 as a junior. Was also student body president and freshman class president.

A speech communication major, Tarver enjoys writing music and playing the guitar and piano.

FULLBACKS

(15) DAVE FARMER — 6-2, 209, 21, Sr.

Dave Farmer was the biggest surprise on the 1974 Trojans. Third string fullback when the season started, he didn't carry the ball in the season opener against Arkansas, but was given a surprise start against Pittsburgh in the second game and wound up the year as the team's fourth leading rusher.

Alternating with Ricky Bell, Farmer, a shifty, sidestepping runner, netted 271 yards and had the highest average on the team, 8 yards a carry. He did not lose a yard all season. His best game was the Rose Bowl, when he dented Ohio State for 67 yards on 7 carries, including a long of 35 that set up USC's first TD. Also had 61 yards on 6 carries against Oregon, 45 on 6 carries against Pitt and 30 on 2 tries against Stanford.

"Dave is an excellent fullback and one of our outstanding players now," says John McKay. "He's a very good all-around athlete."

Farmer lettered two years with the JV's, scoring five touchdowns as a flanker. He told McKay he would play anywhere if given the chance and put on 15 pounds by weight lifting to get a 1974 shot at fullback.

The brother of ex-UCLA wide receiver and pro star George Farmer, Dave played basketball (guard), baseball (center field) and football (quarterback, tailback) at Workman High. He was all-league in baseball and basketball, averaging 21 points a game in the latter. In football he broke off touchdown runs of 96, 86 and 79 yards and was All-CIF.

"But I'm still embarrassed," says Farmer. "The first pass I ever threw as a high school quarterback hit an official in the head and knocked him down."

(36) MOSI TATUPU — 6-0, 225, 20, So.

One of five freshman lettermen, Tatupu carried only 7 times for 45 yards, but was used often as an extra fullback in short yardage situations as part of USC's "Bull Elephant" backfield. A strong runner and blocker, he is extremely difficult to knock off his feet.

"Mosi," says John McKay, "is a potent blocker. Because of his build, he doesn't have to bend over to block you."

Mosi was also a potent runner at Punahou High School in Honolulu, Hawaii, where he rushed 181 times for 1,483 yards and 21 touchdowns as a senior to break all Hawaiian records. In his first high school game he gained 174 yards. Also lettered three years as a basketball forward and guard and two years as baseball catcher and outfielder and was named to the All-City teams in those sports. In football he was an All-American (Coach and Athlete, Scholastic Coach).

Tatupu, who says his favorite pastime away from sports is "sleeping," is majoring in elementary education.

FLANKERS

(13) BOB BINGHAM — 6-0, 175, 19, So.

Did not see action as a freshman as USC cancelled its JV schedule. Bingham was tentatively listed No. 2 at flanker behind Shelton Diggs, going into fall drills.

An All-County and All-City selection at Christian Brothers High School in Sacramento, Bingham played both flanker and safety. He was used sparingly as a ball carrier, but in one game he raced for 196 yards on 5 carries. Bingham confesses, however, he occasionally had the habit of running the wrong way.

(26) SHELTON DIGGS — 6-3, 195, 20, Jr.

The man who cinched the 1974 national championship for the Trojans. There was just 2:03 left in the 1975 Rose Bowl when Diggs made a diving catch of Pat Haden's two-point conversion pass, and USC beat Ohio State, 18-17.

A two-year letterman — he backed up Lynn Swann as a freshman and started as a sophomore — Diggs seems on the edge of stardom, if he can shake the injury jinx. He separated his shoulder in the 1974 Rose Bowl and surgery made him miss spring drills. Last season he missed three games with a foot injury, and last spring he missed several days of practice with a broken finger.

"But he's a super player," says John McKay. "He's fast, big and a very good blocker. There are no bounds to how good he can become — if he stays healthy."

An explosive receiver, Diggs has averaged 24.1 yards on 12 USC career catches. His best game last season was four catches for 78 yards and a 16-yard scoring grab against Notre Dame. He also caught a 36-yard TD pass against Washington and 57-yard, non-scoring toss against Cal. He ran 12 times for a 6.2 average.

Shelton earned All-CIF honors in both football and basketball at San Bernardino High School and was also the league champion in the 100 and 220 with marks of 9.7 and 21.8. Playing tailback in football, he rushed for 380 yards and scored five touchdowns in one game, including a kick runback of 100 yards.

(27) RON JAMERSON — 6-2, 205, 23, Jr.

A first team JC All-American at College of the Canyons in Valencia, Jamerson came to USC in the spring of 1974 and impressed the coaches tremendously at tailback, carrying 25 times in one scrimmage. In the fall he started slowly, then severely pulled a hamstring and sat out the season. Last spring he was moved to flanker.

In junior college, Jamerson rushed for 1,840 yards in two years. He was Western States Conference Player of the Year in 1973, when he carried 239 times for 1,147 yards and 21 TD's. He was second in the nation in scoring.

As a sophomore, Ronnie also led the Cougars in pass receiving with 29 catches for 268 yards, scored five touchdowns in one game and four in another on a night when he gained 248 yards on 27 carries. In his freshman season, Jamerson rushed for 693 yards on 119 carries, scored 8 touchdowns and had a scoring 79-yard punt return. He broke or tied six school scoring records in his JC career.

SPLIT ENDS

(19) JUNIOR LEE — 6-2, 180, 21, Sr.

Listed as the No. 1 split end going into fall drills, Lee lettered behind Johnny McKay in 1974, but caught only 4 passes for 55 yards. A spring, 1974, transfer from Long Beach City College, Lee was Honorable Mention All-State and first team All-Metropolitan Conference.

Junior's real first name is Marion. In 1973 he was Long Beach's MVP, catching 43 passes for 748 yards, a 17.4 average and six touchdowns. As a freshman he snagged 17 for 300 yards and a 17.7 average.

At Long Beach Poly High, Lee played for former USC quarterback Troy Winslow and also played basketball and long jumped. He competed in track for Long Beach CC, too, with an all-time best jump of 24-9¼.

A big fan of Paul Warfield's, Lee beat Bakersfield in an important JC game by catching a 45-yard touchdown pass with 12 seconds left.

(12) KENNY RANDLE — 6-0, 180, 21, Jr.

"I hope Randle has spent his entire summer catching footballs," said John McKay just before fall drills, "because he can really help us."

Perhaps the fastest Trojan, Randle lettered as Johnny McKay's backup in 1973 — although he did not catch a pass — and then sat out last season. McKay gave him permission to miss the last spring practice, because he was having a great season with the USC track team. Kenny has a lifetime best in the 100 of 9.5, but last spring he also ran the 220 in 20.5 and then ran a school record of 45.1 in the 440 to beat eventual NCAA champion Benny Brown of UCLA in the dual meet. He also beat Brown in 45.5 in the Pac-8 championships.

In the NCAA meet Randle was 4th in the 440 and also ran on the NCAA championship 440 relay team, which did 39.1 in the final.

Played with the junior varsity football team in 1972 and then moved up to the varsity for the final three games. Was an NCAA 440 finalist the next spring. Won all Kansas City and All-State honors in football at Central High in Kansas City and once scored three touchdowns in a game on runs of 50, 60 and 78 yards.

(16) MIKE ROBINSON — 6-1, 190, 21, Jr.

A first team JC All-American at Contra Costa, Robinson transferred to USC in the spring of 1974 and sat out last season. In 1973 at Contra Costa he caught 55 passes for 1,104 yards and 12 touchdowns. His total of 84 points tied him for 11th nationally in scoring, and he averaged 20 yards a catch, including a long pass-and-run of 91 yards. In one game he caught 10 passes for 303 yards, and he also scored a touchdown in another game on a 24-yard run.

Mike was Player of the Year in the Camino Norte Conference, Northern California Lineman of the Year and first team All-State. At El Cerrito High School he played tight end and caught for the baseball team.

Robinson's nickname is rather unique — "Tweet."

(18) RANDY SIMMRIN — 6-1, 170, 19, So.

Had a 44-yard catch-and-run against Oregon State as a freshman reserve last season, but Simmrin did not letter. In 1973 he was the only Californian named to Coach Athlete Magazine's "Super Eleven" All-American team.

An All-CIF 4-A first team pick as a wide receiver for Burroughs High in Burbank, Simmrin caught 49 passes for 852 yards and nine touchdowns as a senior. His career totals were 72 receptions for 1,284 yards and 16 touchdowns. He also qualified for the CIF track finals in the 100-yard dash and 180 low hurdles, running 10.0 and 19.6.

(9) HOWARD STUDDARD — 6-4, 204, 21, So.

A quarterback on the junior varsity in 1973, Studdard did not play last season and was moved to split end in the spring. A former Player of the Year in the Southern League, he once threw four touchdown passes in one quarter for Manual Arts. Studdard was also a guard on the basketball team and says the toughest player he's ever faced is "Ricky Bell."

At USC Howard has played for the JV basketball team for two years.

TIGHT ENDS

(87) JIM GALBRAITH — 6-3, 220, 20, Jr.

When Jim — he prefers to be called James — Galbraith transferred to USC from Glendale City College last spring, he was given a big chance to win the job at tight end. But he sprained his ankle badly playing softball just before spring practice and missed all the workouts.

At Glendale, Galbraith was JC Honorable Mention All-American and Honorable Mention All-State and twice All-Western States Conference at tight end. He caught 7 passes for 97 yards as a freshman and 13 for 210 yards and three touchdowns as a sophomore. Against Moorpark in 1974 he snagged 5 for 87 yards and two scores.

Galbraith went to John Burroughs High, where he also ran the high and low hurdles and played forward on the basketball team. His major is theology, and he says reading the Bible is his favorite hobby.

(80) MIKE HOWELL — 6-7, 225, 21, Jr.

One of three non-lettermen listed on the first team going into fall drills, Howell backed up All-Coast tight end Jim Obradovich last season, seeing just 37 minutes of action. He did not catch a pass. Often played with the first team, however, as an extra tight end on short yardage situations.

Howell lettered on the junior varsity as a freshman tight end in 1972, then sat out the 1973 season. Made All-Southern California CIF as an end and basketball player (center) at Corona High School and also played first base and catcher on the baseball team.

Mike says his favorite pastime away from sports is "working with wood."

(82) JOE SHIPP — 6-4, 225, 20, So.

Listed as No. 2 tight end going into fall drills, Shipp sat out the 1974 season. He lettered as a JV in 1973, then played briefly with the varsity at the end of the year. An All-Marine League selection at split end and flanker, Shipp played on two consecutive L.A. City Championship teams at Carson High School. Shipp also played basketball at Carson.

TACKLES

(73) KEN EVANS — 6-4, 255, 20, Jr.

Transferred to USC last spring from Mt. Diablo Junior College and impressed John McKay in drills.

"He has the size to play," says McKay, "and the willingness to learn new techniques."

Evans played two years in junior college at tackle and three years of tackle at Ygnacio Valley High School in Walnut Creek, California. He made the dean's list in junior college and says his favorite hobby is "traveling."

(65) MELVIN JACKSON — 6-1, 253, 21, Sr.

A letterman at weakside tackle and strongside guard last season, Jackson started one game — against Oregon State — and moves up this fall. He was listed as No. 1 weakside tackle after spring practice, although he must recover from a late spring ankle operation.

Jackson played at Mt. Carmel High School, then spent two years on the junior varsity at USC, playing linebacker as a freshman and offensive guard as a sophomore. He was president of Mt. Carmel's senior class.

Jackson is on the Pac-8 Honor Roll with a 3.21 grade point average in political science.

(70) RICK MILLER — 6-3, 280, 20, Jr.

Miller transferred to USC last spring from Long Beach City College, where he was Honorable Mention All-American, and, like JC transfer Ken Evans, he impressed John McKay.

"I think Miller will contribute quite a bit to our program this fall," said McKay, "although we're going to have to take some weight off him."

An All-Metropolitan Conference selection at tackle at Long Beach, Miller went to Lakewood High School where he also played tackle and was an All-Long Beach City selection. Born in Ponca, Oklahoma, Miller is an avid camper and fisherman. His nickname is "Truck."

(78) OTIS PAGE — 6-5, 250, 19, So.

Page did not letter as a freshman, but he did play 45 minutes, backing up Marvin Powell at strongside tackle. He figures very prominently this season, although he missed spring practice, following shoulder surgery.

At California's Saratoga High School, Page made every All-American team as an offensive tackle and linebacker and was selected the outstanding lineman on the Parade Magazine All-American team. Also picked on the Coach & Athlete Cum Laude team for scholastic and athletic achievement combined.

Page's high school team finished with a 34-2 record during his career, and Otis also placed sixth in the state prep shot put championship with a best of 59-2.

A pre-med student who likes chemistry, Page also enjoys playing the guitar.

(76) MARVIN POWELL — 6-5, 268, 20, Jr.

The starting strongside tackle as a sophomore for the national champions last year, Powell was fifth on the team in minutes played, made the AP second All-Coast squad, and was first team All-Pac-8. He has already been picked on Playboy Magazine's pre-season All-American team.

"Marvin Powell," says John McKay, "has as much ability as our 1967 Outland Trophy winner (and All-Pro) Ron Yary. The only question is, how good does he want to be? Marvin is big — not fat — has awfully good speed and great intensity. He was devastating last season — to a point where you say, 'No one can be that good.' And he should be much better this year. He just stiffens the guys opposite him. He could even play tight end if we needed him there. Marvin has unlimited potential."

Powell spent time with the JV's as a freshman and also played a few minutes with the varsity. A consensus All-American, he was a "Super Eleven" pick on the Sunkist prep-All-American team in 1972 at Seventy First High School in Fayetteville, N.C., choosing to attend USC "because of its academic and football prestige."

Marvin played linebacker and tight end in high school, once making 31 tackles in a game. He was an All-County selection as a center and forward in basketball and threw the discus and put the shot for the track team, twice getting to the North Carolina state finals.

A pre-law major, Powell enjoys reading and music and has been nicknamed "Boomer."

(74) JOHN SCHUHMACHER — 6-5, 265, 20, So.

Listed as No. 2 strongside tackle — behind Marvin Powell — Schuhmacher sat out last season, after playing briefly on the varsity as a freshman and lettering with the JV's. He missed part of spring practice with a sprained ankle.

Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Arcadia High School, where he was an All-San Gabriel Valley and All-CIF second team choice. He was also All-Pacific League in baseball, where he played first base and the outfield. Was the leading hitter on his Babe Ruth baseball team that won the national title in the summer of 1973.

An avid card player, Schuhmacher says he once made a basket for the other side in a high school JV basketball game — and that was the difference in the final score!

GUARDS

(62) GREG BEARD — 6-4, 240, 22, Sr.

A non-letterman guard and tackle last season, Beard figured as No. 2 strongside guard after spring practice. He transferred to USC in the spring of 1973 from Rio Hondo JC, but missed all of that season after knee surgery.

At Rio Hondo, where he played two years, Beard was first team JC All-American and All-State at offensive tackle. At Sierra High School he was named most valuable offensive lineman and also played middle guard on defense. He was an All-League selection and third team All-CIF pick and was a heavyweight varsity wrestler for three years, once reaching the CIF semi-finals. He's an avid surfer.

(77) BRUCE BROOKS — 6-2, 255, 21, Jr.

Bruce transferred to USC last spring from Los Angeles City College and was tentatively listed as No. 2 weakside guard going into fall drills.

A good blocker who impressed the coaches in the spring with his intensity, Brooks played at Washington High School in Los Angeles.

(64) JOE DAVIS — 6-3, 244, 22, Sr.

One of two starting members of the offensive line to return — Marvin Powell is the other — Davis is No. 1 at weakside guard. Last season he played 269 minutes as starting strongside guard.

Joe lettered as a sophomore in 1973, backing up Bill Bain, but played heavily for the first time in the Rose Bowl. Also lettered as a JV in 1972 and played briefly with the varsity at the end of the season.

An All-San Antonio League tackle at Claremont High School, Davis also played center on the basketball team, put the shot for the track team and played first base in baseball. He now keeps in shape by playing tennis.

(61) DONNIE HICKMAN — 6-3, 258, 20, Jr.

"Donnie Hickman will be a super guard," says John McKay. "He's not only a hard hitter, but he's run 4.9 in the 40."

Hickman lettered last season, backing up both offensive guards, but he comes into fall practice as the definite starter at strongside guard. He appeared in several varsity games as a freshman — as early as the second one with Georgia Tech.

Donnie came to USC from Flagstaff High in Arizona, where he not only played football, but also put the shot 59 feet and once scored 41 points in a basketball game. In football he was quick enough to play tailback and fullback.

(51) GENE LAWRYK — 6-2, 245, 21, Jr.

Lawryk played 35 minutes at outside linebacker last season, making 13 tackles and playing on the kickoff team, but did not letter. He was shifted to offensive guard in the spring.

Lettered at linebacker on the 1972 JV's and played briefly with the varsity. He was held out in 1973. Gene was an All-Los Angeles City selection as offensive guard and defensive tackle for Eastern Legaue champion Bell High, which went 10-1. He played in the 1972 North-South Shrine Game.

(63) PAT MORRIS — 6-1, 226, 21, Sr.

Played briefly at nose guard last season and backed up Jim Lucas as punter, although he did not kick in a game. Played linebacker for the JV's in 1972 and 1973. Pat also competed in wrestling, rugby and set a school shot put record at Alemany High School and won All-League honors as a linebacker.

CENTERS

(68) MIKE CORDELL — 6-3, 232, 21, Sr.

Cordell has been a very versatile Trojan, playing everywhere on the interior line. He was moved to center last spring to back up Jeff Flood. As a 1973 sophomore, Cordell became starting strongside guard in the fifth game and kept the job. Listed as a starter at weakside guard last fall, he was troubled by injuries early in the season and lettered as a reserve at both guard and tackle.

Won All-Long Beach City and All-League honors at Long Beach Wilson High School, where he played offensive and defensive tackle. He also put the shot. Cordell's biggest sports hero? Jim Thorpe.

(67) JEFF FLOOD — 6-3, 240, 22, Sr.

Now the No. 1 center, Flood backed up Bob McCaffrey for two years, lettering in 1973 and just missing a letter last season. In 1973 he also saw action at guard. He's considered a steady, consistent player.

Lettered as a guard on USC's last (and unbeaten) freshman team in 1971, then was tried briefly at tight end and held out during the 1972 season. He was switched to center in the spring of 1973.

Jeff made Honorable Mention All-American his senior year at Escondido High and was a two-time All-San Diego CIF and All-Avocado League selection at tailback and tight end. He also played center field for the baseball team. A pharmacy major, Jeff's favorite pastime is fly fishing in the High Sierra. He backpacks in.

(98) NORM LACY — 6-2, 243, 21, Jr.

Lettered two years on the JV's, including one at offensive guard, then sat out last season. Norm earned All-County honors as a defensive lineman at Terra Nova High School in Pacifica, California and also was runnerup in the Northern California wrestling meet as a heavyweight.

PUNTER AND PLACE KICKER

(39) GLEN WALKER — 6-1, 220, 23, Jr.

An Honorable Mention JC All-American and All-State punter and place kicker, Walker transferred to USC from Harbor College last spring. He immediately won both kicking jobs.

"He's the best kicker I've seen on our practice field since Ernie Jones in the early 1960's," says John McKay. "He has a tremendous leg. The Rams watched him work out one day, tried to sign him and were dismayed to find out he was already enrolled at USC."

As a sophomore at Harbor, Walker set a school record with a 41.4 average on 34 punts. In one game he averaged 49.1 on six punts. He also kicked 21 of 23 extra points and 3 of 7 field goals with a long of 41 yards.

Glen was a freshman kicker at Harbor in 1970, then went into the Army for three years and worked as assistant prison supervisor at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

At Gardena High School, Walker once stood on his own 20 and punted 83 yards into the other end zone, but the kick was nullified by an offsides penalty.

A two-year letterman, Rhames played behind Monte Doris in 1973 and Otha Bradley in 1974, but was listed No. 1 going into fall practice. Last season he also saw action at defensive tackle, deflecting a pass and making nine tackles. In 1973 he started against Oregon State when Doris was hurt.

Held out in 1972, Rhames started for the unbeaten (and last) USC frosh team in 1971. Also competed in basketball and baseball at San Joaquin Memorial High in Fresno, where he won All-Northern California and All-City honors in football.

(71) HAROLD STEELE — 6-2, 250, 21, Jr.

A fall, 1974 transfer from San Diego City College, Steele was held out last season. He's considered a strong candidate for the starting role in 1975.

At San Diego, Steele was his team's most valuable player, MVP in the Mission Conference, and a first team JC All-American. He made 15 tackles in one game and 14 in another. Was a star defensive lineman at Lincoln High in San Diego, playing for former San Diego Charger defensive end Earl Faison.

Steele likes music and history and is a big fan of Pittsburgh Steeler star Mean Joe Greene.

TACKLES

(79) GARY JETER — 6-4, 240, 20, Jr.

First team AP All-Coast and All-Pacific-8 in 1974, the next stop is a logical one for this two-year starter.

"Gary should be an All-American this season," says John McKay. "He's an outstanding player with the potential to keep getting better, and he's the fastest defensive tackle I've ever seen. He's a very hard worker and a very intelligent one and doesn't horse around on that football field. He wants to find out immediately what the other team is doing and what he can do to throttle their offense.

"He could be the best defensive tackle in America this season."

It's an understatement to say Jeter is quick. He was clocked in 4.7 in the 40 in both 1974 and 1975, and the last time he stumbled at the start. He's been a starter since the third game of his freshman year, when an injury to ex-Trojan Mike Hancock gave him his opportunity. The opponent was Oklahoma.

Although his main job is to contain on defense and force the ball carrier to others, Jeter was still fifth on last year's team in tackles with 64, including 13 sacks for 61 yards. He also broke up two passes. As a freshman he had 5 sacks for 53 yards, made 49 tackles, recovered a fumble, intercepted a pass and deflected another.

At Cleveland's Cathedral Latin High School, Jeter was chosen Ohio Lineman of the Year in 1972 and was a consensus All-American. In one game he had 18 tackles, sacking the quarterback an incredible 10 times. He also put the shot 59 feet for the track team.

Recruited heavily, Jeter narrowed his choices to USC, Notre Dame and Ohio State, before deciding. Very gregarious, Gary's favorite pastime is bike riding, but he also enjoys basketball and card playing.

"The coaches get on me a lot," says Jeter, "but no one gets on me harder than I do myself. I feel I have a lot of personal improving to do."

(93) LARRY NUNNALLY — 6-3, 253, 25, Sr.

Listed behind Gary Jeter at left tackle, Nunnally played 39 minutes last season but did not letter. He was a reserve at both tackle and nose guard, making eight tackles and recovering one fumble.

Larry transferred to USC in the spring of 1974 from College of the Canyons, where he played with Ron Jamerson and won JC Honorable Mention All-American honors. He was also first team All-State. He came to California from Savannah, Ga., where he was a star at Tompkins High School.

(72) RAY PETERS — 6-3, 235, 19, So.

Ray played briefly for the varsity as a freshman, spending time at offensive tackle. He was shifted to defense this spring.

Came from St. Francis High in La Canada, where he went both ways and was named lineman of the year on the All-San Gabriel Valley team. He was also an All-CIF 4-A first team pick. His most exciting moment came when he scooped up the ball after he blocked a punt and rumbled 70 yards to score, as St. Francis beat Notre Dame High, 10-7. He had 29 quarterback sacks and played on the North team in the Shrine All-Star game.

(95) WALT UNDERWOOD — 6-4, 225, 20, So.

A pleasant surprise in the spring, Underwood sat out last season but played well enough in April to be listed as the No. 2 right tackle. A defensive lineman on the JV's as a 1973 freshman, he was briefly tried at tight end in the early fall of 1974.

Underwood came to USC from Southwest High School in Atlanta, where he helped his football team go undefeated and his basketball team win the state championship. Underwood played middle guard for Southwest's defense, which allowed only 13 points all year in going 10-0. He was an All-State selection. In basketball he was the Wolves' leading scorer and rebounder the night they won the state 2-A title.

Walt was also the Georgia state champion in the discus and set a state record with a toss of 158-1. He runs the 40 in 4.8.

(75) VINNY VAN DYKE — 6-5, 225, 19, So.

Van Dyke, whose real first name is Vincent, comes into fall as the No. 1 right tackle. He played 21 minutes with the varsity as a freshman and impressed the coaches by terrorizing opposing teams on USC kickoffs. He had nine tackles.

Van Dyke was All-State at Greenwich High in Greenwich, Conn., and was on the Scholastic Coach All-American team at defensive end. He was also Athlete of the Year in his area and once made 13 unassisted tackles in a single game. In another, he intercepted a screen pass and ran 40 yards for a touchdown. Vinny also played center for the basketball team.

Van Dyke says he's a Trojan because "I knew athletically USC was the best, and on my visit here I found the academic environment to be equal." His favorite pastime is playing with a rock group.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

(59) MARIO CELOTTO — 6-4, 230, 19, So.

Celotto not only lettered as a freshman, but was 12th on the defense in minutes played and started three games when senior Dale Mitchell hurt his knee.

"Mario can be as good as he wants to be," says John McKay. "He's quick, smart and aggressive, and he could be a tremendous tight end if we had to move him there."

Celotto was tried briefly at tight end in spring practice, but he's probably too valuable at linebacker to be moved. He was listed as a starter going into fall drills. Last year he was 9th on the defense with 37 tackles, including two for 18 yards in losses, and returned a squib kick 44 yards to Washington's nine-yard line. He also played briefly at defensive tackle when senior Art Riley was injured, broke up a pass and intercepted another. He runs 4.7 in the 40.

Mario was chosen on the All-CIF 3-A first team at St. Bernard's High, despite his team's 1-8 record. He was All-Camino Real League as an offensive guard and defensive tackle, making the first team both as a junior and senior. A typical Southern Californian, Celotto spends much of his free time at the beach.

(41) STEVE KENLON — 6-0, 195, 19, So.

Steve appeared in several games as a freshman, although he didn't letter. He made 13 tackles and should see heavy action in 1975, if he can recover from spring knee surgery.

Kenlon was a split end (sophomore), tight end and linebacker (junior) and linebacker and running back (senior) for Servite High School. He averaged nine yards a carry as a senior. A former Lineman of the Year in Orange County, he also made the Coach & Athlete All-American team and once caught a touchdown pass with 23 seconds left to beat Pius X.

His favorite pastime is surfing.

(57) DAVID LEWIS — 6-3, 224, 23, Jr.

After Anthony Davis returned Notre Dame's second half kickoff for a touchdown to start USC's comeback explosion in the famous 55-24 win, Lewis kept it going by trampling Irish halfback Mark McLane on his own eight-yard line on the very next kickoff. THAT inspired the Trojan defense.

"At times last spring Lewis was so good he was absolutely unreal," says John McKay. "If he would just concentrate and play more consistently, he could be the best linebacker USC has ever had."

A reserve at both outside linebacker positions as a sophomore, Lewis figures as a starter this fall. Last year he made 32 tackles, including five sacks for 16 yards. He transferred to USC from San Diego City College, where he earned All-Southern California JC honors and sacked the Citrus quarterback seven times in a single game.

At Lincoln High in San Diego he was All-City and All-County one year in basketball as a center and two in football. He scored 41 points in one prep basketball game.

Lewis, who loves swimming and listening to music, says Mike Garrett is his biggest sports hero, "because he gets involved with helping young kids."

(52) ROD MARTIN — 6-1, 195, 21, Jr.

Listed No. 2 behind Mario Celotto, Martin was held out last season after transferring to USC in the spring of 1974 from Los Angeles City College. At L.A. he was a first team JC All-American, playing linebacker for former USC letterman Al Baldock. Martin was one of the captains for the Cubs, who tied Fresno, 10-10, in the state JC championship game. He played on the same team as Vince Evans.

Born in Welch, West Virginia, Martin played locally at Hamilton High, earning All-Los Angeles City honors at linebacker. He also played fullback. Away from football, Rod enjoys swimming and horseback riding.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

(50) KEVIN BRUCE — 6-0, 215, 21, Sr.

Richard Wood won all the honors, but Kevin Bruce led USC in tackles in 1974, making 99. USC's only full-time starting linebacker returning, Bruce also had two sacks for 13 yards in losses, broke up three passes and recovered five fumbles. Two of his fumble recoveries were on Notre Dame's 36 and 16-yard lines and set up touchdowns.

"Bruce is an outstanding college linebacker," says John McKay. "Part of the reason is his intelligence. You won't fool him. He's right where he's supposed to be."

Bruce was second team Academic All-American last season with a 3.2 GPA in business administration. He played 78 minutes and lettered as the top inside reserve in 1973, making 32 tackles and breaking up one pass. He was a regular on the kickoff teams as a freshman with the 1972 national champions.

Kevin earned first team All-CIF 4-A honors as a linebacker at St. Francis High and was also All-San Gabriel Valley. He had 102 tackles as a senior, including 21 in one game. Also earned numerous scholastic honors with 3.82 grade point average, including Bank of America English Award and a National Merit Scholarship.

Off the football field, Kevin enjoys handball, golf and reading and says his favorite class is philosophy.

(91) GRANT GELKER — 6-0, 225, 22, Sr.

A spring, 1974 transfer from Orange Coast Junior College, Gelker played only briefly with the Trojans last season. He was a defensive tackle at Orange Coast, where he won Honorable Mention All-American honors and was South Coast Conference Lineman of the Year and Orange County Lineman of the Year.

Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Newport Harbor High, where he was All-CIF, Orange County High School Lineman of the Year and Sunset League Lineman of the Year. In 1971 he played with former Trojans Anthony Davis, Pat Haden, John McKay and Allen Carter on the South team in the Shrine Game.

(54) DALE LOGIE — 6-1, 220, 22, Sr.

Listed as the other starting inside backer next to Kevin Bruce, Logie lettered last season, playing 52 minutes. He broke up two passes, recovered a fumble and played behind Richard Wood, as well as on the kickoff teams.

Logie made rapid strides at USC, transferring in last fall from Glendale Junior College, where he was All-Western States Conference linebacker for two years, All-State in 1973 and Honorable Mention All-American. As a sophomore he led Glendale in interceptions with 8, in tackles with 110 and was named team captain and most valuable player. Dale was a fullback and linebacker at Franklin High School and is an avid "surfer, skier and traveler."

(60) CLAY MATTHEWS — 6-2, 230, 19, So.

The other half of USC's 1974 pair of freshmen lettermen at linebacker (Mario Celotto is the other), Matthews made 25 tackles and so impressed John McKay that he's listed No. 2 at two positions — outside linebacker behind David Lewis and inside behind Dale Logie. He could also start.

"Matthews is going to be a great linebacker," says John McKay. "He's very alert and is so quick at getting to the ball carrier, some opponents will think there's two of him out there."

Clay had three tackles for losses (nine yards) last season, coming to USC from New Trier East High School in Chicago, where he was on the Coach & Athlete and Scholastic Coach All-American teams, made the All-Illinois team and won the Knute Rockne Award from the Chicago Notre Dame Club. He had 20 tackles in one game as a linebacker and averaged 6.7 yards a carry as a fullback.

Matthews was an All-League selection at Arcadia (Calif.) High, before moving to Chicago.

Clay is on the Pac-8 Honor Roll with a 3.2 GPA in engineering.

(55) ERIC WILLIAMS — 6-2, 220, 20, Jr.

Eric appeared briefly in several games last season, making two tackles, and went into fall drills listed No. 2 behind Kevin Bruce. Williams lettered at linebacker for the JV's in 1973, after coming to USC from Central High School in Kansas City, Mo., where he was an All-City fullback and linebacker. In one prep game he made 25 tackles.

Eric says his greatest thrill in sports "will be when I first start for USC."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

(44) MIKE BURNS — 5-11, 193, 21, Jr.

Listed as No. 2 rover going into the season, Burns sat out the 1974 campaign, after transferring from Contra Costa Junior College. He was switched to defensive back for the Trojans, although he played tailback in JC, running for 693 yards, 10 touchdowns and a 4.1 average as a sophomore. He also caught 5 passes for 60 yards, including one of 39 yards for a touchdown, earned Honorable Mention All-State honors and was twice chosen to the All-Camino Norte Conference first team.

At El Cerrito High School, Burns played tailback and defensive back and once had scoring runs of 80, 73 and 65 yards in the same game.

(23) RON BUSH — 6-0, 180, 21, Jr.

The returning starter at right corner, Bush took over in mid-season and kept the job, as Marvin Cobb was moved to safety. Bush did not intercept a pass, but he broke up three and made 22 tackles.

A spring, 1973, transfer from San Bernardino Valley JC, Bush was held out in 1974. Ron went to San Bernardino High School, where he was an All-City offensive and defensive back for two years, scored four touchdowns in one game and ran the 100 in 9.7 for the track team.

Ron says his favorite pastime is swimming.

(48) DOUG HOGAN — 6-4, 206, 21, Sr.

A two-year letterman, Hogan started the first six games at safety last season, then backed up Marvin Cobb the rest of the year. He moves to rover this season, where he was listed as the starter going into fall drills. Hogan intercepted one pass and one fumble last season, carrying the intercepted fumble back 15 yards to the Washington State five to set up a touchdown. He also made 22 tackles and broke up another pass.

As a sophomore, Hogan backed up All-American Artimus Parker and was sixth among the defensive backs in minutes played. He lettered on the JV's as a freshman.

A three-sport man at Point Loma High School in San Diego, Hogan ran track and played tennis, but says his favorite pastime is playing three-man beach softball. He also likes body surfing and still talks about one of Point Loma's games, when the lights went out and the game had to be finished the next morning.

(38) RON JOHNSON — 6-1, 186, 22, Sr.

Has played only briefly with the varsity the last two seasons, mostly on the special teams. Johnson also lettered on the JV's in 1973 and played on the undefeated freshman team of 1971. He sat out the 1972 season with an injury.

Johnson played flanker and safety at Compton High School and was named the team's outstanding offensive and defensive player and MVP. He had 13 interceptions as a junior, had three interceptions in one game and caught six passes in another. Also ran a 9.8 100 for the track team. Johnson's favorite pastime is "listening to jazz."

(40) JIM LUCAS — 6-2, 200, 21, Sr.

The number one punter for the varsity the last two seasons but may play only defensive back this year with the transfer of Glen Walker. Lucas had a long punt of 45 yards in 1973 and a long of 54 last season, when he improved his average from 36 to 38 yards a kick. He ran for a 16-yard gain against Ohio State in the 1975 Rose Bowl on a broken punt play. Played on the varsity and JV's in 1972, backing up Dave Boulware as a punter.

An All-CIF first team pick as a wide receiver at Arcadia High, Lucas also pitched for the baseball team.

(33) RICKY ODOM — 6-0, 180, 19, So.

Played 19 minutes as a freshman last season and backed up Danny Reece at left cornerback. Odom had no interceptions, but deflected two passes and made 10 tackles.

Selected on the All-City second team at Los Angeles High and was named most valuable player in the Southern League. As a senior, Ricky caught 51 passes for 818 yards and 10 TD's as a wide receiver, and also intercepted seven passes as a defensive back. He returned punts, too.

Odom, an avid fisherman, says he still laughs about the day at high school practice when he forgot and ran onto the field without his pants.

(46) DANNY REECE — 6-0, 187, 20, Sr.

A two-year starter at left corner, Danny Reece may be on his way to becoming the leading pass interceptor in Pacific-8 history. He goes into the 1975 season with 14, just six behind All-American Artimus Parker's career record of 20. Reece has run his 14 passes back 183 yards for an impressive 13.1 average per throw. He was named second team All-Coast on both AP and UPI in 1973 and 1974, and first team All-Pac-8 in 1974.

As a sophomore, Reece tied Parker for the team and Pac-8 lead with eight interceptions, stealing passes in seven different games, including one for a 30-yard touchdown runback against Oregon, two against Oregon State and one against Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

In his junior year, Reece intercepted passes in six different games, setting up two touchdowns (Pittsburgh and Washington State) and taking one back 43 yards to the Stanford 19 to set up a field goal. In the Rose Bowl against Ohio State, he stopped a Buckeye threat with an interception on the USC 24.

A ferocious hitter, Danny made 51 tackles, recovered a fumble and broke up seven passes as a sophomore and came back with 40 tackles, two deflections and another fumble recovery last season. He jarred Notre Dame All-American Pete Demmerle loose from the ball at the Irish 36, forcing the fumble that set up USC's go-ahead touchdown.

"I don't think there's a harder hitter in the country than Reece," says John McKay. "He's an outstanding defensive back."

Danny led all defensive players in minutes played in 1973 and was a close third in 1974. He also played the most minutes as a freshman on the 1972 junior varsity, seeing action on both offense and defense, and played 17 minutes on the varsity. At Banning High Danny was an All-Los Angeles City selection, played basketball and baseball and competed in track. He once scored three touchdowns in six carries — all on long runs.

A social psychology major, Reece says his biggest sports hero is Muhammad Ali, "because he sounds like me."

(47) TED ROBERSON — 6-0, 183, 22, Sr.

Listed as backup to Ron Bush at right corner, Roberson is a two-year letterman who has started three games in his career and also played rover. He started against UCLA in 1973, when Marvin Cobb was injured and intercepted a pass. He made 22 tackles last season. Ted didn't play in 1972, after starting at cornerback for the unbeaten 1971 frosh.

A tailback at East High School in Bakersfield, Roberson set a Kern County rushing record with 1,486 yards in nine games his senior year. In one he rushed for 276 yards and scored five times. He was All-Northern California in both football and basketball (guard) and started for the North in the 1971 Shrine Game at tailback.

(34) ROBIN ROBINSON — 6-0, 177, 20, So.

Came into fall listed as No. 2 left corner behind Danny Reece. Robin lettered with the junior varsity in 1973 and moved up to the varsity for the last couple of games, appearing on the special teams. He did not play last season.

An All-League selection at Centennial High, Robin played defensive back and wide receiver, and also won the CIF 440 championship in track. He has a lifetime best of 46.9 on a relay leg.

(14) MARK SPINO — 6-1, 185, 21, Jr.

Played in the first five varsity games last year, mostly on the kickoff teams, before he injured his knee and underwent surgery. Spino intercepted a pass against Washington State. He sat out the 1973 season, after playing quarterback for the JV's in 1972.

Mark came to USC from Clark High School in Nevada, where he was an All-State quarterback and also played soccer and baseball. He still enjoys soccer, along with boxing and water skiing.

(49) CLINT STROZIER — 6-3, 195, 20, Jr.

Strozier inherits All-American Charles Phillips' number, which is appropriate, because USC's coaches think he has a bright future. He entered the fall listed behind Dennis Thurman at safety, but could start if Thurman goes back to offense. Clint was an Honorable Mention All-American and Honorable Mention All-State pick at Moorpark Junior College, where one rival JC coach called him "by far the best defensive back in the state."

An All-Western States Conference first teamer, Strozier led Moorpark in tackles with 108, caused four fumbles and made two interceptions as teams rarely threw in his area.

Strozier, who has a great ability to read if the play is developing as a run or pass, played his high school ball at Oxnard.

(7) DENNIS THURMAN — 6-0, 170, 19, So.

A throwback to old fashioned ball players, Thurman played both offense and defense as a letterman freshman, and he may again this season. He started three games at flanker early in the season when Shelton Diggs was hurt and later was moved to backup safety, where he starred in the fourth quarter of the UCLA game. First he intercepted a pass on the USC four to stop one Bruin drive, and then several minutes later, he picked a fumble out of the air and raced 85 yards down the right sideline for a touchdown.

Thurman also returned 10 punts for 68 yards, carried the ball 4 times for 23, and returned a kickoff for 23 more. He came into fall listed as the starting safety, but could be moved back to flanker if he's needed there.

"There's no doubt about it," says John McKay. "Thurman is a great athlete."

At Santa Monica High, Thurman was the All-CIF 4-A second team quarterback, passing for 500 yards and five touchdowns and running for more than 800 with 11 touchdowns and a 7.8 average per carry. He also returned punts 75 and 60 yards for scores and played safety on defense.

In basketball, Thurman was an All-CIF 4-A third team pick, averaging 17.2 points a game as a guard, and he also played the outfield in baseball. As a football junior, he passed for over 900 yards. In 1974 he was Prep Magazine's CIF Athlete of the Year.

TROJANS SET DRAFT RECORD

USC, which has more players playing pro football than any other university, will have even more this season after a record number of Trojan players were drafted last January.

Fourteen Trojans were selected, the most since the common draft began in 1966.

Among those picked in the NFL draft (some later signed with the AFL) were 13 starters and one reserve, tailback Allen Carter. Four Trojans went in the second round, one in the third and one in the fourth.

Following is a list in alphabetical order of those selected in the 1975 NFL draft, including team, position and round:

NAME	TEAM	POSITION	ROUND
Bill Bain	Green Bay	Offensive Guard	2
Otha Bradley	San Diego	Nose Guard	10
Allen Carter	New England	Tailback	4
Marvin Cobb	Cincinnati	Safety	11
Anthony Davis	New York Jets	Tailback	2
Pat Haden	Los Angeles	Quarterback	7
Steve Knutson	Atlanta	Offensive Tackle	16
Bob McCaffrey	Green Bay	Center	16
John McKay	Cleveland	Split End	16
Dale Mitchell	San Francisco	Outside Linebacker	13
Jim Obradovich	New York Giants	Tight End	7
Charles Phillips	Oakland	Rover	2
Art Riley	Minnesota	Defensive Tackle	2
Richard Wood	New York Jets	Inside Linebacker	3

1974 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 1 — September 14, Little Rock, Arkansas

Arkansas 22, USC 7

USC	7	0	0	0 — 7
Arkansas	7	3	10	2 — 22

In a season of stunning upsets, this one had to rank among the top half dozen. The Trojans went to Little Rock placed fourth and fifth in the polls, but were outgained and outplayed by the inspired Razorbacks, who were cheered on by a record home crowd.

Injuries to every single member of the interior offensive line for USC had forced John McKay to cancel all scrimmages for his first offensive team before the opener, and the lack of work showed. USC was out-hit much of the game. It was only the Trojans' second loss in an opening game in 13 years.

Quarterback Pat Haden had the worst game of his career, failing to complete a pass until the third quarter and winding up with only six completions in 18 attempts and four interceptions.

Three interceptions, a lost fumble and a safety led to or produced all 22 Arkansas points. The first pass theft, by Razorback safety Floyd Hogan, came after USC had driven 53 yards to the Arkansas 12 early in the first quarter. Hogan brought it back 66 yards, setting up Ike Forte's 27-yard scoring sprint down the left sideline.

Tailback Anthony Davis signaled his great season to come by fielding the next kickoff and streaking 106 yards down the left sideline for the fourth scoring kickoff return of his career.

The Trojans were still tied 7-7 late in the first quarter when reserve quarterback Rob Adolph fired a touchdown pass to tight end Jim Obradovich on a muffed field goal attempt from the Razorback 39, but it was nullified by a clipping penalty.

USC trailed 10-7 at halftime, and Trojan frustrations increased in the second half with their deepest penetration only the 50-yard line until a last-gasp drive ended on the Razorback 23 as the gun popped.

Defensively, linebacker Richard Wood made 15 tackles, while nose guard Otha Bradley and tackle Art Riley were in on 10 each.

Game 2 — September 28, Pittsburgh

USC 16, Pittsburgh 7

USC	3	0	0	13 — 16
Pittsburgh	0	7	0	0 — 7

In their second game, the Trojans found their offense, and most of it came on the ground as they thoroughly dominated the Panthers in a game that was not nearly as close as the score sounds.

The game had been billed as a matchup of "A.D. West" and "T.D. East," but Anthony Davis of USC rambled for 149 yards, while Tony Dorsett of Pittsburgh was held to 59 by the swarming Trojan defense. It was the first of Anthony's eight 100-yard games. USC's No. 2 tailback Allen Carter ran for 88 yards.

USC outgained the Panthers, 452-111, ran off an incredible 87 plays to 34 for Pitt and dominated the time of possession, 44:23 to 15:37. The Trojans also ripped off 28 first downs to 5 for Pitt, gaining 402 yards on the ground.

Turnovers kept USC from scoring more often, including three fumbles by sophomore quarterback Vince Evans at the Pitt 10 and 33 and on the goal line. But it was also Evans who directed USC to victory after starting quarterback Pat Haden was knocked cold shortly before the end of the first half with the Panthers ahead, 7 to 3.

An interception at the USC 45 and Dorsett's 23-yard run had set up quarterback Bill Daniels' nine-yard touchdown pass to Karl Farmer for the only Pitt score.

But in the second half Evans drove USC 80 and 78 yards for touchdowns, which came on Davis' two-yard run, and the quarterback's 13-yard sweep around left end.

Rover Charles Phillips, tackle Gary Jeter and All-American linebacker Richard Wood led the aggressive USC defense.

Game 3 — October 5, Los Angeles Coliseum

USC 41, Iowa 3

Iowa	3	0	0	0 — 3
USC	14	14	7	6 — 41

USC's defense came through with the big plays by forcing five Iowa turnovers as the Trojans opened their 1974 home season with a 41-3 victory.

Rover Charles Phillips was the standout performer as he picked off two Iowa fumbles in mid-air and took them in for touchdowns. Phillips' returns of 181 yards established a new NCAA record for single-game interception return yardage.

Iowa took the opening kickoff and drove straight to the USC three-yard line where a big play from nose guard Otha Bradley stopped the drive and the visitors settled for a field goal.

Anthony Davis then took the ensuing kickoff and returned it 80 yards up the middle and down the left sideline for a touchdown. It was Davis' second scoring return of the year and fifth of his career.

An interception by safety Doug Hogan put USC in business again on the Iowa 48. Quarterback Pat Haden found split end John McKay for 17 yards and a first down on the 11-yard line. From there, Haden circled left end for the touchdown that made it 14-3.

Iowa began driving in the second quarter, but a jarring tackle at the USC 17 sent the ball flying into the hands of Phillips who ran it 83 yards for a touchdown. Later, Haden found McKay once more, this time for a 17-yard scoring strike, which climaxed a 74-yard drive. The Trojans led, 28-3 at half.

The visitors threatened again late in the third quarter, but Phillips picked off a fumble at the USC two and returned it 98 yards for another score.

Quarterback Vince Evans and flanker John Cantwell completed the day's scoring as they teamed on a 14-yard touchdown strike late in the fourth quarter. Evans had marched USC 80 yards.

Linebacker Richard Wood led all Trojan tacklers with 12, while Bradley had 11, cornerback Danny Reece had 10 and tackle Art Riley 9.

The Trojans rode the churning legs of Anthony Davis as they opened their successful bid for a third straight Rose Bowl appearance with a 54-7 blitz over Washington State, which ran John McKay's record against the Cougars to 7 and 0.

Davis dipped, darted and slashed for 189 yards in the first half, as the Trojan line opened gaping holes. The senior tailback also scored twice and then played just one series in the second half to finish with 194 yards.

No. 2 tailback Allen Carter was hot again, running 14 and 22 yards for touchdowns, as he broke several tackles, while fullback Ricky Bell burst up the middle 59 yards for a touchdown — the Trojans' longest scrimmage run of the year.

USC dominated the night game from the begining, scoring on a game-opening 71-yard drive when Pat Haden hit split end John McKay with a three-yard scoring pass. Davis, from the two, and Carter, from the 14, also scored in the first half, the latter score coming at the end of an 80-yard drive.

Doug Hogan's 15-yard return of an intercepted fumble to the Cougar five set up Davis' second score, a one-yard dive that made it 28-0.

Carter, Vince Evans, Bell and Evans again got the final four touchdowns, Evans scoring the last time at the end of his own 80-yard march.

Washington State's only touchdown — on an eight-yard pass from reserve quarterback John Hopkins to tight end Carl Barschig — came when USC had a 40-0 lead.

The Trojans recovered three Cougar fumbles and intercepted two passes.

Game 5 — October 19, 1974, Eugene, Oregon
USC 16, Oregon 7

USC	10	3	0	3 — 16
Oregon	0	7	0	0 — 7

Three Chris Limahelu field goals and consistent defense by the Trojans were the difference as USC took its second conference victory.

Anthony Davis darted for 160 yards and fullbacks Dave Farmer and Ricky Bell pounded away for 61 and 58, but the Trojans wasted four scoring opportunities, including non-scoring drives to Oregon's four and 10-yard lines.

Limahelu's first three pointer, a 21-yard effort came after the Trojans drove to the Oregon four on their first possession. Rover Charles Phillips intercepted a pass on Oregon's next scrimmage play and USC was in business on the Duck 35-yard line.

It took the Trojans seven plays, including a 13-yard run up the middle by fullback Dave Farmer, to score. Tailback Anthony Davis went over from the one.

Oregon struck quickly in the second quarter on a 45-yard bomb from Norval Turner to Greg Bauer. USC took the ensuing kickoff and drove 73 yards to the Oregon eight-yard line where Limahelu connected on a 25-yard field goal.

Big defensive plays by linebackers Richard Wood and Kevin Bruce and nose guard Otha Bradley kept Oregon contained in the third quarter. Bradley led all Trojan tacklers with 10.

Meanwhile, the Trojans were having trouble moving the ball. Finally, halfway through the fourth quarter, USC drove to the Oregon 19 where Limahelu was again successful, this time on a 38-yard effort.

The Ducks threatened one more time but Wood intercepted a pass at the Southern Cal 31 to end the final drive.

The Trojans returned to the friendly confines of the Coliseum only to meet a surprisingly tough Oregon State squad. The Beavers struck for two quick first half scores and a 10-0 lead.

Alvin White's 43-yard touchdown pass and a field goal put USC behind 10-0 with nine minutes left in the half. Tailback Anthony Davis, who ran for 143 yards, and quarterback Pat Haden finally found the key to the Beaver defense as USC rolled 70 yards for a score, a 13-yard gallop by Davis. The senior tailback broke several tackles on the run.

The touchdown by Davis was the 41st of his career, breaking a 52-year-old Pacific-8 record, set by California's Duke Morrison who scored 40 from 1920 to 1922.

USC's defense then held, forcing Oregon State to punt. Haden, who hit 8 of 16 passes, connected on three throws to split end John McKay, putting the ball on the OSU eight-yard line. Haden then found tight end Jim Obradovich alone in the end zone to give the Trojans a 14-10 lead with only 21 seconds remaining in the first half.

Southern Cal's offense continued to roll in the second half as Chris Limahelu capped a 71-yard drive with a field goal in the third quarter.

A 16-yard run by Allen Carter paved the way for the Trojans' next touchdown, an 11-yard burst by Davis at the beginning of the final period for a 24-10 edge.

The Haden to McKay combination struck later on in the fourth quarter. Haden hit McKay for an 11-yard gain, and two plays later the pair teamed for a 38-yard scoring strike.

Linebacker Kevin Bruce and tackle Gary Jeter were the defensive standouts for the Trojans. Bruce was in on 10 tackles and deflected two OSU passes. Jeter's pressure forced OSU runners into losses on three occasions.

USC	0	7	8	0 — 15

USC's Rose Bowl hopes almost took a tumble, as the Trojans blew two scoring opportunities in the fourth quarter and had to scramble for a tie against the vastly improved Caifornia Bears.

The tie snapped USC's 17-game winning streak in Pacific-8 play.

Twice the Trojans moved within field goal range late in the game, but place kicker Chris Limahelu missed 19 and 39-yard attempts, the last one with 49 seconds left to play. California then quickly drove 63 yards to the USC 17, but a 34-yard field goal try by Jim Breech was wide to the left with seven seconds remaining in the game.

Led by quarterback Steve Bartkowski, Cal surprised the Trojans early in the game, grabbing a quick 12-0 lead. Bartkowski's passing set up one Bear score, and then he hit split end Steve Rivera with a 16-yard TD strike early in the second period.

California's first conversion attempt was blocked by linebacker Richard Wood, and Bartkowski's try for a two-point conversion after the second touchdown was thwarted when tackle Gary Jeter threw him for a loss.

Trojan safety Marvin Cobb set up USC's first touchdown by returning an interception 29 yards, the first pass stolen on Bartkowski in his last 135 attempts. Cobb brought USC to the Bear 14, and five plays later Anthony Davis dove over the middle for the touchdown that cut Cal's lead to 12-7.

Davis and reserve tailback Allen Carter both ran for 119 yards in the game, but the Trojans remained behind, as Breech kicked a 20-yard field goal in the third quarter for a 15-7 Bear lead.

Davis took the ensuing kickoff, however, and almost broke for a touchdown up the middle, sprinting 42 yards to the USC 44. Runs of 11 and 17 yards by Carter sparked USC's tying 56-yard drive, which ended when quarterback Pat Haden snuck a yard for the touchdown. Haden then passed to tight end Jim Obradovich for the two-point conversion, firing over the middle.

Haden moved the Trojans close for Limahelu's final field goal try with a 57-yard pass to flanker Shelton Diggs.

Inside linebacker Kevin Bruce had 10 tackles and broke up a pass, while outside backer Dale Mitchell made eight tackles, including two for losses, and broke up another pass.

Stanford went into this Rose Bowl showdown as the last Pac-8 team to defeat the Trojans — and came out the same way.

The two teams met before 83,000 people in Palo Alto as co-leaders in the Pacific-8 with identical 3-0-1 records, but the big game turned out to be a mismatch, as USC showcased the offense John McKay thought he might have when the season began.

The Trojans had a 34-3 lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter and played mostly reserves after that, as they kicked off a four-game winning streak that they took into the Rose Bowl.

Anthony Davis again ignited USC's attack, ripping off 119 yards, scoring twice and lobbing a nine-yard touchdown pass to Johnny McKay. The Trojans drove 75, 47, 92 and 52 yards for their four touchdowns, and did not make a turnover.

Quarterback Pat Haden hit a 16-yard swing pass to fullback Dave Farmer on the game's first play, and the Trojans rolled in 75 yards from there to score on a one-yard dive by Davis for 7-0. Chris Limahelu's 22-yard field goal early in the second period followed Danny Reece's 43-yard interception return.

Davis' touchdown pass to McKay for 17-0 was set up by a 14-yard wingback reverse by Shelton Diggs.

The Trojans broke the game open the first time they got the ball in the second half, streaking 92 yards in only six remarkable plays. Davis ran seven, four and 14 yards, fullback Ricky Bell burst through the left side for 21, Farmer ripped off the left side for 25, and then Davis shot 21 for the touchdown, dragging a tackler the last five yards.

Freshman Dwight Ford's three-yard run and Limahelu's second 22-yard field goal, following a successful onside kick, closed out USC's scoring. In the first three quarters the Trojan defense allowed Stanford past the USC 42 only once. Reece, Marvin Cobb and outside linebacker Mario Celotto intercepted passes, while Ed Powell recovered a fumble.

Between 1947 and 1951 California went 24 league games without a loss, and in pounding Washington, the Trojans tied that record. It was John McKay's 10th straight win over the Huskies.

Pat Haden's accurate passing and Anthony Davis' elusive running spurred USC to a 42-3 lead. For the second straight game the first string Trojan defense did not allow a touchdown.

The big game by Davis, who ran for 147 yards, jumped his career rushing total to 3,414, just nine short of the all-time Pac-8 record set by Heisman Trophy winner O. J. Simpson of USC.

Haden completed five of six passes in the first half for two touchdowns and led the Trojans on scoring drives of 63, 48 and 80 yards during the afternoon. No. 2 quarterback Vince Evans directed a 63-yard touchdown march, while fumble recoveries by safety Marvin Cobb and inside linebacker Kevin Bruce at Washington's 25 and six-yard lines set up two more.

For the second straight week the Trojans scored on their first series, as Haden nailed flanker Shelton Diggs with a 36-yard touchdown pass over the middle.

In dominating the Bruins, the Trojans set a new Pac-8 record for consecutive games without a loss (25), made it seven Rose Bowl trips in nine years and ran John McKay's all-time record against UCLA to 10-4-1.

Continuing their brilliant play that started against Stanford, the Trojans won on the flying feet of Anthony Davis, the leadership of Pat Haden and the aggressiveness of a defense that forced five turnovers. As against Stanford, USC did not turn the ball over once.

The defense never quit. With the score 27-9 in the fourth quarter, linebacker Kevin Bruce recovered a Bruin fumble on the USC 11, safety Dennis Thurman intercepted a pass on the USC four, and then Thurman picked a fumble out of the air at the Trojan 15 and raced it 85 yards for the final touchdown.

Davis carried 31 times for 195 yards, scored once, broke off a non-scoring 46-yard run and raised his three-year total against UCLA to 518 yards and a 6.2 average per try. On his first carry, Davis shot outside off left tackle for 16 yards and broke O. J. Simpson's all-time Pac-8 career rushing record.

Inspired, the Trojans drove 70 yards to score, the third straight game they got a touchdown on their first series. It came on Haden's eight-yard rollout around left end.

Chris Limahelu of USC and Brett White of UCLA exchanged field goals in the second period, and then USC went 77 yards for a touchdown and 17-3 lead. Haden's scramble for 17 yards and a 46-yard sprint by Davis set up Haden's 17-yard scoring throw to Johnny McKay cutting down the middle.

After UCLA cut the score to 17-9 at half on a seven-yard scoring pass by Jeff Dankworth — Richard Wood blocked the conversion — the Trojans broke the game open on their first series of the second half.

Passes of 11 and 14 yards from Haden to McKay sparked an 81-yard drive that ended when Davis ran eight yards for a touchdown, lunging into the end zone.

A 14-yard interception return by cornerback Danny Reece set up Limahelu's school-record 50-yard field goal for a 27-9 edge as the third quarter ended.

Game 11 — November 30, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 55, Notre Dame 24

Notre Dame	14	10	0	0 — 24
USC	0	6	35	14 — 55

It has been called by some "the greatest game in West Coast history." For sure, it is destined to be a legend.

All season, Notre Dame, the leading defensive team in college football, had allowed just nine touchdowns, and when the Fighting Irish, ranked fourth in the country, jumped ahead of USC by a stunning 24-0 score, you had to believe in miracles to think the Trojans could still win.

But they did — with the greatest blitz ever rained on Notre Dame in the 85-year history of Irish football.

Ignited by Anthony Davis, the Trojans outscored Notre Dame, 49-0, in the second half, and, altogether, stung the Irish with 55 straight points in 16 minutes and 54 seconds. Of those points, 35 came in the third quarter, the most ever scored in a quarter on Notre Dame. The total of 55 missed by only four of equaling the most EVER scored on the Irish.

If Davis drove the Irish crazy for the second time in three years, scoring four touchdowns himself, Pat Haden drove them crazy with passing. Pat's four touchdown passes tied USC's one-game record and gave him a school record 31 for his career.

Davis' touchdowns gave him 11 against Notre Dame in three years, and the second one, which triggered the explosion, was a 102-yard kickoff return that broke the existing NCAA career record. It was the sixth of A.D.'s career.

Notre Dame had built that 24-0 lead with almost perfect defense and an opportunistic offense that moved 39, 29 and 79 yards for touchdowns and 77 yards to a field goal.

When Mark McLane ran nine yards for the final Irish touchdown, only 53 seconds remained in the first half. But then:

— Haden drove the Trojans 59 yards for a touchdown in 43 seconds, completing 20 and 15-yard passes to flanker Shelton Diggs and then nailing Davis with an eight yard swing pass in the left flat for the score that made it 6-24 at half.

— Davis caught the second half kickoff two yards deep in the end zone, burst out of a crowd around the USC 30 and shot down the left sideline for his third scoring kickoff return against the Irish in three years. Make it 12-24.

— Charles Phillips' eight-yard punt return put USC on N.D.'s 38, and after Haden threw 31 yards to Johnny McKay, Davis broke over right tackle for six yards and a touchdown. Chris Limahelu's conversion made it 19-24.

A Tom Clements pass was complete but cornerback Danny Reece jarred the receiver so hard that he fumbled and linebacker Kevin Bruce recovered on the Irish 36. Haden threw 13 yards to Diggs and 17 to McKay, and Davis bolted four yards for the go-ahead touchdown and then ran for two points and a 27-24 lead.

— Still in the third quarter, safety Marvin Cobb danced 56 yards with a punt, setting up Haden's 18-yard touchdown pass down the middle to McKay for 34-24.

— Notre Dame drove to the USC 35, but Phillips intercepted and returned 25 yards to the 50. Six plays later, Haden threw 44 yards to McKay for another score and 41-24 on the final play of the third quarter.

— Bruce recovered another fumble on the second play of the final period — this time on the Irish 16 — and on first down, Haden rolled left and hit Diggs in the end zone for 48-24.

— And, finally, with only 1:44 gone in the fourth quarter, Phillips intercepted another Clements pass and raced 58 yards for the last touchdown — which made it 55-24 and tied the NCAA record for most scoring interceptions in a season. It was Phillips' third of the year.

Game 12 — January 1, 1975, Rose Bowl
USC 18, Ohio State 17

Ohio State	0	7	0	10—17
USC	3	0	0	15—18

For the third straight time, USC and Ohio State were Rose Bowl opponents, and this time the game decided the UPI version of the national championship — since No. 1 Alabama was upset in the Orange Bowl New Year's night by Notre Dame.

It was fourth-ranked USC that came from behind to beat second-ranked Ohio State, with a heart-stopping 18-17 finish that won John McKay his fourth national title.

The Trojans won the game without Anthony Davis in the second half — he had severely bruised ribs — on the running of tailback Allen Carter (75 yards, 66 in the second half) and fullback Dave Farmer (67 yards) and the passing of Pat Haden.

In his last four games as a Trojan, Haden completed 33 of 54 passes (61%) and fired nine touchdown passes. None was bigger than his rollout, 38-yard touchdown strike to old friend Johnny McKay in the right corner of the Rose Bowl end zone with 2:03 left in the game. The Trojans had trailed the Buckeyes, 17-10.

Then, with the score 17-16, Ohio State, Haden rolled again and fired for the two-point conversion that won the national championship — on a diving catch by flanker Shelton Diggs, who plucked the ball just off the grass.

The win was also a tribute to the Trojan defense, which snapped Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin's streak of 22 straight 100-yard rushing games. Griffin was swarmed over and held to 75 yards on 20 carries. Linebacker Kevin Bruce had 15 tackles.

In a wild game with a total of seven turnovers, USC led 3-0 on Chris Limahelu's 30-yard field goal and trailed 7-3 at half, as Champ Henson ran two yards to score after a fumble recovery on the USC six.

The Trojans finally went ahead, 10-7, early in the final period, as Haden climaxed a 72-yard drive with a nine-yard scoring pass to tight end Jim Obradovich. A twisting, 35-yard run by Farmer set it up.

Ohio State came right back to go 82 yards and take a 14-10 lead, when quarterback Cornelius Greene, who scrambled for 32 yards on the drive, circled right end from the three for a touchdown. The Buckeyes immediately recovered a Trojan fumble on the USC 30, and took their final 17-10 lead, as Tom Klaban booted a 32-yard field goal.

JOHNNY McKAY

38-Yard TD Catch in 1975 Rose Bowl

NON-CONFERENCE RECORD

Facing its traditional tough non-conference schedule, USC stumbled in the opener, losing to fired-up Arkansas 22-7, but came on with a flourish at the end to knock off No. 4 ranked (in the UPI poll) Notre Dame 55-24 with a spectacular second-half comeback. Then, in the Rose Bowl, the Trojans rallied to stun No. 2 rated Ohio State 18-17 and capture the national championship.

With regular season wins over Pittsburgh (16-7) and Iowa (41-3), the Trojans finished with a 4-1 non-conference record last season. They have now won more than 70 percent of their non-conference games with an enviable 213-86-17 mark in their 87-year history.

USC extended its record for wins in the Rose Bowl with its 14th last New Year's Day against only six losses. No other university has won more than five times in the grandaddy of all bowl games.

USC's non conference record:

USC's ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC's athletic excellence is recognized throughout the world of intercollegiate athletics.

Trojan teams have captured more NCAA championships — 56 — than any university in the nation and the university's football team has been declared mythical national champions on seven occasions.

Here is the up-to-date list of USC national titles and the coaches of the winning teams.

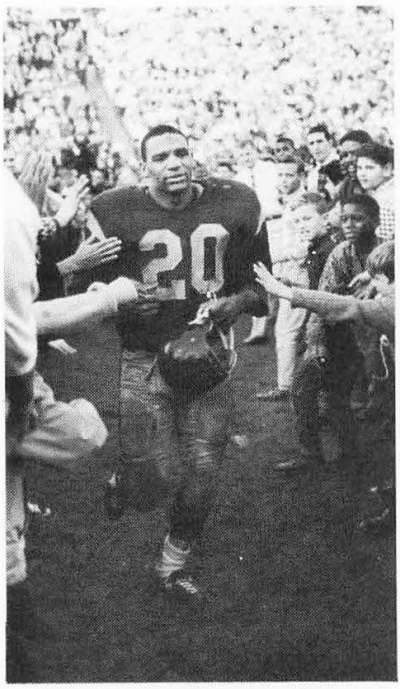
HEISMAN SALUTE

Mike Garrett — 1965



Mike Garrett, USC's first Heisman Trophy winner, concluded his Trojan career on Nov. 27, 1965, against Wyoming. By rushing for 112 yards in that game, Mike established a new NCAA career record of 3221 yards (since bettered).

The popular Garrett won the Heisman Trophy over such outstanding collegians as Howard Twilly of Tulsa, Jim Grabowski of Illinois, Don Anderson of Texas Tech, Floyd Little, Tom Nobis, Bob Griese and Clint Jones.

Garrett and Anthony Davis are the only players in USC history to lead the Trojans in rushing three years.

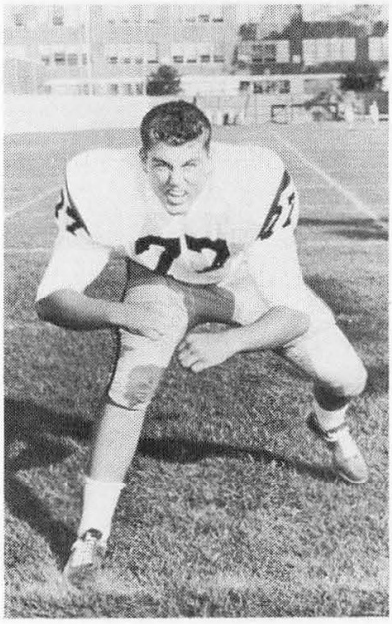
OUTLAND SALUTE

Ron Yary — 1967



Ron Yary is the only USC player to win the Outland Trophy, "the Heisman Trophy for linemen." The Outland award goes to the outstanding guard or tackle in the nation and is selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

Yary was a two-time consensus All-America offensive tackle for the Trojans and was a unanimous All-America pick in 1967 when he won the Outland. The first player selected in the 1968 pro draft, he is now a perennial All-Pro with the Minnesota Vikings.

The University of Southern California is the oldest major independent non-sectarian coeducational university in the West. Its diversity of good programs has marked it as one of the most distinguished universities in the world.

* USC, one of only 23 private leading research universities in the United States, is a member of the Association of American Universities, the most esteemed organization of academic institutions.
* Several specialized campuses include a Marine Science Center on Santa Catalina Island; The Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts in the San Jacinto Mountains; and the Health Sciences campus, located next to the Los Angeles County-USC Medical Center.
* Enrollment stands at 23,300, including 9,100 fulltime undergraduates; 4,300 fulltime graduate or professional students; 3,300 parttime undergraduates; 6,600 parttime graduate or professional students.
* Faculty and students from approximately 100 countries around the globe come to USC for study, teaching, and research.
* USC provides southern California with a significant portion of its professionals: 48% of the judges and 40% of the attorneys in Los Angeles County are USC graduates; more than 2,000 physicians, 7,500 engineers, 45% of the pharmacists, 60% of the social workers, dentists, and school administrators in southern California earned their degrees at USC.
* Sponsored research and training programs total more than $43.7 million per year.
* USC has a fulltime faculty of 1,500.
* Included among USC's distinguished alumni are astronauts Neil Armstrong, Alan Bean, James Lovell, and Walter Schirra; Chancellor Ernest L. Boyer of the State Universities of New York; columnist Art Buchwald; U.S. Representative Yvonne Braithwaite Burke; oilman Jean Paul Getty; Metropolitan Opera star Marilyn Horne; artist Mary Corita Kent; author Irving Stone; actress Marlo Thomas; symphony conductor Michael Tilson Thomas; actor John Wayne; CBS-TV Network President Robert D. Wood.

DR. JOHN HUBBARD
University President

Dr. John R. Hubbard was elected the eighth president of the University of Southern California in August of 1970 by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees, which also named him a Trustee two months later.

Dr. Hubbard had been vice president and provost of USC for a year before succeeding Dr. Norman Topping, who became USC's second chancellor after 12 years as the University's chief executive officer.

Dr. Hubbard, a noted historian, came to USC from four years in India climaxed by service as chief education adviser there for the U.S. Agency for International Development.

Prior to that he was dean and professor of European history at Newcomb College of Tulane University from 1953 to 1965.

A specialist in modern British and modern European history, he taught at Tulane from 1949 to 1952, and spent the year of 1948 on the faculty of Louisiana State University and 1952-53 teaching at Yale University. He teaches graduate history students every year.

A graduate of the University of Texas, where he earned three degrees between 1936 and 1950, having served five years during World War II as a naval aviator, Dr. Hubbard also studied at North Texas State University in Denton and The American University in Washington, D.C.

He came out of the Navy as a Lieutenant Commander, having been a flight instructor and patrol plane commander in the Atlantic and Pacific fleets. He won the Distinguished Flying Cross and four Air Medals.

Dr. Hubbard was born in Belton, Texas, Dec. 3, 1918, the son of an educator — Dr. L. H. Hubbard — who died in July, 1973.

Dr. and Mrs. Hubbard, the former Lucille Luckett of San Angelo, Tex., live in San Marino. They have three daughters: Elisa, 24, a 1973 graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, now completing work for her Master's degree in International Relations at USC's London Campus; Melisse, 22, who earned her baccalaureate degree from USC in social work and expects to pursue graduate studies in the same field, and Kristin, 20, a junior at Stanford.

He is a trustee of the Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities and a member of the Southern California Advisory Board of the Institute of International Education and a Trustee of Scholarships for Children of American Military Personnel.

He is a member of the Commission on Federal Relations of the American Council on Education and a member of the Council on Federal Relations of the Association of American Universities.

He holds an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters from Hebrew Union College, Los Angeles.

Dr. Hubbard is a member of the Board of Directors of the United Financial Corporation of California.

DR. NORMAN TOPPING
University Chancellor

After twelve distinguished years as the seventh president of USC, Dr. Norman Topping announced his early retirement for reasons of health in spring, 1970.

Following the selection of Dr. John R. Hubbard to succeed Dr. Topping, the USC Board of Trustees invited the popular former President to remain on campus, serving in the post of University Chancellor. Dr. Topping accepted, and thus continues to serve his Alma Mater. He is the first alumnus to be USC's Chancellor.

The second alumnus to be President of the oldest major coeducation non-sectarian university in the West, Dr. Topping became USC's chief executive officer on Sept. 1, 1958.

He was graduated from USC in 1933 with a bachelor of arts degree and in 1936 with the degree of doctor of medicine.

He was the chief architect of USC's Master Plan for enterprise and excellence in education, announced in 1961 after a two-year study by trustees, administrators and faculty members.

Many distinguished men of learning were attracted to USC during his Presidency and more than $235 million was given to the University, mostly from private sources, for USC's Master Plan, original goal of which was $106 million.

Dr. Topping came to the USC Presidency after a distinguished 16-year career with the U.S. Public Health Service, climaxed by his appointment as an Assistant Surgeon General and associate director of the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md.

He also was vice president for medical affairs at the University of Pennsylvania six years immediately prior to returning to USC.

Dr. Topping developed the typhus vaccine used in World War II by more than 15,000,000 U.S., Canadian and British servicemen. The vaccine still is in use. Dr. Topping received the Bailey K. Ashford Award in 1943 and the U.S. Typhus Commission Medal in 1945.

Dr. Topping served as President of the Southern California Rapid Transit District for two years, from 1971-73. He is a director of Litton Industries, Getty Oil Co., H. F. Ahmanson & Company, and Transamerica Mutual Funds.

He was a Headliner of the Year at a dinner of the Greater Los Angeles Press Club on Nov. 23, 1971, and was honored as "Man of the Year" by the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce on Feb. 24, 1971. The Los Angeles Area Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America gave him their "Distinguished Citizen Award" on June 2, 1972. On Jan. 9, 1975, Dr. Topping was the recipient of the 1974 Hollzer Award at the Annual Meeting of the Jewish Federation-Council of Greater Los Angeles.

Dr. Topping holds honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws from Occidental College, UCLA, and Loyola University, Doctor of Science from USC, and Doctor of Humane Letters from Hebrew Union College.

PHOTO ACCOMMODATIONS

Accredited news photographers are allowed to shoot news pictures from the sidelines and from atop the press box. Photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 35-yard lines except during the first quarter, when one photographer from each Los Angeles newspaper and picture service will be allowed to operate between the restraining lines. A special armband must be worn by those photographers entitled to shoot between the 35-yard lines. After the first quarter no photographer is allowed between the 35-yard lines.

PRESS TICKET REQUESTS

Press, radio, scouting, and camera ticket requests for all USC home games should be made to Jim Perry, Director, Athletic News Service, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, California 90007.
